St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

In the gospel today we are given two central tenets of our faith. Jesus gives his disciples the "New Commandment: LOVE ONE ANOTHER. As I have loved you so you should love one another". And we are also given the hope that if we do this loving as Jesus loved, we too will inherit glory. "Love and glory, love and glory, go together like…the Jesus story" as the song might have gone!

But I need to speak about something that has been concerning me for a while; it has been vexing Pope Francis too, GOSSIP. Pope Francis said recently to crowds in St Peter's in Rome, "It's so rotten, gossip. At the beginning, it seems to be something enjoyable and fun, like a piece of candy. But at the end, it fills the heart with bitterness and also poisons us,…I tell you the truth, I am convinced that if each one of us would purposely avoid gossip, at the end, we would become a saint! It's a beautiful path!" "Do we want to become saints? Yes or no?" he queried, as the crowds replied, "Yes!" "Yes? Do we want to live attached to gossip as a habit?" Pope Francis continued, "Yes or no? No? Okay, so we are in agreement! No gossip!"

Gossip is a sin against the commandment not to murder. It is defamation of character…a little murder; character assassination if you will. It is one of the tools of those who are wrecking our political systems here and abroad, attacks on the person (sometimes referred to as ad hominem attacks) rather than diligent debate about issues seems to be the destructive path of least resistance. It is verbal violence with no love in it and leads to perdition rather than glory.

ST. LOUIS DE MONTFORT CONFIRMATION VENI SANCTE SPIRITUS

to our 1st Communicants

Our best wishes and prayers go out to the 120 children who received the Sacrament of Holy Eucharist for the first time on Saturday, May 4th.
The children from our parish school, and the English and Spanish Faith Formation Programs, were a sight to behold as they received Jesus for the 1st time.
This long-awaited day held many treasured memories for our children and their families who helped prepare them throughout the year for this very special occasion. Prayers of gratitude are offered for our teachers who worked so closely and so well with the children and their families as they prepared for both Penance and Holy Eucharist.

WHEELCHAIR SUNDAY

Please mark your calendars for May 25-26, 2019. Fr. Aidan Peter and the Knights of Columbus Council 11137 invite you to a very special event, 'WHEELCHAIR SUNDAY."
It is estimated that worldwide over 100 million children, teens and adults lack mobility due to birth defects, war, disease, accident, natural disaster or advanced age, and need wheelchairs but cannot afford one. Please join the Knights of Columbus Council 11137 on "Wheelchair Sunday," May 25-26, 2019 and learn how you can help the poorest of the poor gain mobility and freedom and hope.

MISSIONARIES OF MERCY

Paul's back! After last week's "violent abuse," opponents organized a lynch mob that beat Paul nearly to death. But call Paul the "energizing evangelist," transforming deadly cruelty into life-giving zeal. Paul's past courage should inspire our commitment; Revelation's future "new heaven, new earth" should inspire our optimism. But Revelation's present assurance, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race," should challenge us to become "missionaries of mercy." Because Pope Francis declared that the Church's credibility is completely dependent on our showing unconditional mercy. Mercy, said Francis, makes the Church, the world, and everyone young again, reawakened to life's noblest virtues. Fittingly, in today's Gospel Jesus reinforces that theme: "This is how all will know you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

I'm also concerned that it is a sin that rears its ugly head in the parish too. In my position as Pastor, I, and other members of the parish team, receive anonymous mail, emails, etc.; some of it, libelous, most of it just plain wrong, or often worst of all - AND MOST USUALLY - made up, putting words in my mouth that I assure you would never come out. An example was a gossip saying I condemned a person in the parish for an event that happened when I did not know about the event concerned, and I was in Africa when I was supposed to have said it to a parishioner! This is crazy, vulgar and sinful. So I'm asking us all to be mindful of what we say but also be careful what we hear and see and don't let imagination, or our own personal agendas get the better of our good judgement. As Pope Francis says, "No gossip". If you are unhappy with me or something going on please come and see me so we can sort it out as friends. Also, I consider anonymous communications to be cowardly as they don't give anyone the chance to respond; they presume a validity of content which by its very anonymity must be questionable. Also, email correspondence which never results in a face to face get together to resolve anything is, in the end, very unconstructive and wearying.
I'm sorry this picnic weekend to have to write on such matters, but, it's a papal concern too so I felt I had to let you know what has been going on and where I stand on such matters.
God bless,
Fr A-P

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Ongoing child sexual abuse prevention training
Since 2002, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles has trained about 330,000 adults to proactively protect children and young people from child sexual abuse and reporting misconduct. In addition, over 165,000 children and young people receive safe environment training annually. In 2018, the Office of Safeguard the Children launched its new "Empowering God's Children & Young People" Program, which empowers children and young people by giving them the knowledge and tools to keep themselves safe and teaches them to tell a parent, guardian or safe adult if anyone makes them feel uncomfortable, scared or confuse. MANTENLOS A SALVO

Formación continua sobre la prevención de abuso sexual infantil
Desde el 2002, la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles ha capacitado cerca de 330,000 adultos para proteger proactivamente a los niños y jóvenes del abuso sexual infantil y para denunciar toda conducta indebida. Además, más de 165,000 niños y jóvenes reciben capacitación sobre un ambiente seguro cada año. En el 2018, la Oficina Protegiendo a los Niños lanzó su nuevo programa "Dar poder a los niños y jóvenes de Dios", el cual otorga poder a los niños y jóvenes por medio de los conocimientos y las herramientas para que se mantengan seguros, y les enseña cómo conversar sobre el tema con sus padres, cuidador o adulto confiable si alguien los hace sentir incómodos, asustados o confundidos.
