St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

Well, after a wonderful Festival Sunday last week, where we had great weather, fabulous food, and lots of games, talent, laughter and fellowship, I want to thank Christine and Debbie, 'the real dynamic duo" for all their great efforts over the last few months to "Get the show on the road". It was very well organized and laid out, without too many hitches and a very efficient tidy up. I think it was the earliest ever because so many of you - and especially our younger members -helped with that, let's face it, tedious task. I want to thank all those who helped the leadership coordinate and run the food booths (most of which sold out) the raffles, cake walk and the games etc for the children. Great work and done with great commitment to the parish. We do not have a total yet but we will let you know when we do.

There is a fuller thank you included on another page of this bulletin.

Next week we are in October, the month devoted to Our Lady of the Rosary. Could I ask you to remember our Blessed Mother with great devotion during that month? All mothers worry about their children and I would ask you to think about those who leave the Church. Many people are leaving the church for many disparate reasons, rejecting the church's teachings and not practicing the faith established by our heavenly Mother's Son our Lord Jesus Christ. Our Lady must be worried and tearful about this. Let us be like St Monica, who prayed constantly for her son (St) Augustine's conversion, and pray constantly for those who struggle with the faith and who need our prayerful support to keep it and not abandon it. Perhaps in October you could offer a Rosary for their intentions.

God bless you and your families and as the old valediction goes "Keep the faith"!

Fr Aidan-Peter CJ

PARISH FESTIVAL: UNDER THE BIG TOP

WOW! WOW! WOW!

On behalf of the entire festival committee, Debbie and I want to say THANK YOU!!!! What an absolutely outstanding day we had at our 55th annual parish festival! The Lord provided us with perfect weather (ok maybe just a little warm). The food was delicious! Steppin' Out and our 15 contestants for the talent show as well as DJ Frankie G entertained the crowds. Bubble Fun and our dunk tank were enjoyed by children young and young at heart. Knights of Columbus, Boy Scouts, St Joseph students and hundreds of volunteers which includes all the food booths, raffle and day of tickets, quarter raffle and games, set up and clean up crews, gave of their time. There are too many involved to name individually without leaving someone out so we won't. Our final total will be coming soon. Once again, thank you, thank you , thank you. Debbie and I have been humbled and blessed by your work, your prayers, and your support!
In his Service,
Debbie and Christine

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Understanding community grooming
Like the psychological grooming we discussed last week, community grooming is another way a predator inserts himself into the life of his child victim. In community grooming, the predator develops a rapport with the community surrounding his victims, appearing to be kind, generous, and caring. This can often lead to increased levels of trust from adults around the victim, and increased access to the victim. The predator uses manipulation and lies to build a false image of good, which makes it harder for victims to come forward to express discomfort or report an allegation. For more information on community grooming, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Stockholm Syndrome and Victims of Abuse, Part II" at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

MANTENLOS A SALVO

Comprendiendo el acoso sexual comunitario
Al igual que el acoso sexual (grooming) psicológico que discutimos la semana pasada, el acoso sexual comunitario es otra forma en que un depredador se inserta en la vida de su víctima infantil. En el acoso sexual comunitario, el depredador desarrolla un entendimiento o una relación cercana con la comunidad que rodea a sus víctimas, aparentando ser amable, generoso y afectuoso. Esto a menudo puede conducir a mayores niveles de confianza por parte de los adultos cercanos a la víctima, teniendo así, el depredador, mayor acceso a la víctima. El depredador usa la manipulación y la mentira para construir una imagen falsa del bien, lo que dificulta que las víctimas puedan expresar sus molestias o que se presenten a hacer una denuncia. Para más información sobre el acoso sexual comunitario, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® "The Stockholm Syndrome and Victims of Abuse, Part II" (El Síndrome de Estocolmo y las víctimas de abuso, Parte II) en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current- Online-Articles.aspx.

The Bethlehem Christian Families (The Holy Land) October 5 & 6, 2019, are here to sell their hand carved religious articles made of olive wood. The sale of these precious articles supports their Church Mission which is to maintain the roots and the existence of the Christian Families who are struggling to remain in Bethlehem.

At least Ninety percent of the funds raised through these sales go directly to Christians living in the Bethlehem area. The proceeds will create more work which will help them to survive and stay in the Holy Land since they have no other source of income and are dependent on the olive wood industry. Thank you for your support and generosity."
