St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

This weekend we focus on the missionary life of the Church and here in our parish our very important, and literally life-giving, connection with the Josephite Missions in Africa. Thousands of children and their families are served by an ever growing number of schools. To go along with the growth of these schools there is, by God's good grace, a growing number of Josephites in formation for the religious life priesthood to continue this work for years to come. It is all progressing well but like any area of growth and vitality it needs financial support. Again, in all humility as the Vicar General of the Josephites, I ask you for your support of this vibrant and developing missionary field. See the handout and the envelopes in the benches.

Also this weekend we are thinking about a mission nearer to our home, the disaffiliated Catholic. Bishop Robert Barron and all the bishops, and you yourselves, are very concerned that there is an increasing rate of lapsation from the Church. All of us know of members of our families and communities who have left the Church. This is a serious and saddening matter that must bring about reflection and analysis, practical outreach but at this initial stage profound prayer. This weekend after all Masses in the Gathering Area there will be the start of the St Monica Ministry. St Monica was the mother of St Augustine who for many years did not practice his faith, but through her prayers and God's grace Augustine became the fearless theologian of the early Church. There will be the opportunity for you to offer names of those who have moved away from the Church to be put into a prayer book for us to pray for at Masses, and also St Monica novena cards to use. Please start this "missionary" process of bringing the stray sheep back to the fold.

God bless,
Fr Aidan-Peter CJ

SLDM School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.
The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.
While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today, October 20th, marks World Mission Sunday. This Sunday joins all Catholics of the world into one community of faith. At Mass, we recommit ourselves to our common vocation, through Baptism, to be missionaries, through prayer, participation in the Eucharist, and by giving generously to the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. You will find envelopes in the pews for your donations. Just $25 provides support for a catechist in Peru, and $40 supports a Sister in Kenya serving among homeless children.

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Know the signs of denial

Denial is a commonly used defense mechanism for abuse victims. Because they want to believe that things will go back to normal, victims often feel trapped into just allowing the situation to play out. Fear of change can be overwhelming, especially if the victim has been manipulated by his or her abuser. Victims may also struggle with accepting what's happening because they know their abuser closely, as a family member or friend. It's important to recognize the signs of denial and how to break through those barriers that can keep a victim from true healing. To learn more, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "The Many Faces of Denial, Part 2," at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

MANTENLOS A SALVO

Conozca las señales de la negación

La negación es un mecanismo de defensa comúnmente usado por las víctimas de abuso. Debido a que quieren creer que las cosas volverán a ser normales, las víctimas por lo regular se sienten atrapadas en el hecho de haber permitido que la situación se desarrollara. El miedo al cambio puede ser abrumador, especialmente si la víctima ha sido manipulada por su abusador o abusadora. Las víctimas también pueden tener dificultades para aceptar lo que está pasando porque su abusador es alguien cercano, como un miembro o amigo de la familia. Es importante reconocer las señales de negación y cómo romper esas barreras que evitan que la víctima tenga una verdadera sanación. Para aprender más sobre el tema, lea el artículo de VIRTUS ® "The Many Faces of Denial, Part 2" (Las muchas caras de la negación, parte 2) en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.
