St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr.Aidan Writes:

Well the Christmas Festivities draw to a close with the Feast of the Epiphany, when the Christ child is honored and worshipped by the Three Magi. The Word made flesh is announced to the whole world; He is the God of all humankind. The Gospels narrate that the three Magi did not go back to see Herod on their way home but "by a different way". This not only means a different road but also with a completely changed outlook on life. Why so? Because they had encountered Emmanuel, the God who walks with us. They had been changed utterly by the experience.

This year I propose that we have a real focus on those who were born and raised Catholic but for whatever reason are disaffected with the Church. We must explore ways to share our encounter with God and our own conviction to follow the Way of the Lord in the Catholic Church as a worthwhile and salvific life path. If we believe in our faith, we must share it with assurance and verve. Just imagine if each parish family was brought to full and regular worship and the practice of the faith? We all know of someone we could invite to join in again; there would be no spare seats, our programs would be brimming over and our witness a beacon to all in the area.

We must "Go out to the whole world proclaiming the good news".

God bless you and your families this New Year

Fr AP CJ

KEEP 'EM SAFE

What is child sex trafficking?
Child sex trafficking occurs when a minor is involved in a commercial sex act where sex is traded for money, food, shelter, drugs or anything else of value. Perpetrators of sex trafficking often target children believing their age makes them easier to manipulate and control. This crime is occurring in all types of communities throughout the U.S. and traffickers are making an alarming profit while victims endure abuse and violence. One of the most important things you can do to protect your child is to create an environment in which he or she feels comfortable talking with you as a trusted adult. MANTENLOS A SALVO

Qué es el tráfico sexual de niños?
El tráfico sexual de niños ocurre cuando un menor está involucrado en un acto sexual comercial, en el cual se intercambia sexo por dinero, comida, albergue o cualquier otra cosa de valor. Los perpetradores de tráfico sexual por lo regular escogen niños, creyendo que su edad les permite ser manipulados y controlados más fácilmente. Este crimen está ocurriendo en todo tipo de comunidades alrededor de Estados Unidos, y los traficantes están obteniendo alarmantes ganancias mientras que las víctimas son objeto de abuso y de violencia. Una de las cosas más importantes que usted puede hacer para proteger a su hijo/hija es crear un ambiente en el que él o ella se sienta cómodo/a viéndolo a usted como un adulto confiable con quien puede platicar. THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM
The unfolding of the story of the Incarnation continues today as the Church celebrates the Epiphany. The tale of the magi from the East is one of the most fascinating in all of scripture. It has much to teach us about what we can come to expect, even in circumstances and places that may seem insignificant or small. Bethlehem was a tiny town, what we might refer to today as a town without even one stop light. Yet it is over this seemingly insignificant place that the guiding star stops in its own search for the place where the Savior would be born. Too often we fail to recognize the fact that the star of Bethlehem comes to rest in our everyday lives, where we can experience God's presence, manifested in ever new ways. Epiphany calls us to shake off our stupor and recognize the One who comes to save us.
