St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Writes:

Not many of us have murdered anyone and also not many of us have stolen etc. In the readings at Mass this weekend we have set before us Jesus and his understanding of the Commandments. He says he is here to fulfill them rather than abolish them. How does he do this? Jesus shows that the commandments are straight forward by the way he lives his life amongst us and we are given the choice of following them or not. God has given us this power to choose, something that Sirach speaks about in the first reading. So Jesus then lives his life clearly in accordance with God His and our Father's commandments; he shows us it can be done. Jesus then goes the extra mile, as it were, and seals that life of faithfulness to God's divine yet wholly practical will by shedding his blood in the sacrifice of the Cross, a wisdom that is "mysterious and hidden", as St Paul tells us in the 1st letter to the Corinthians.

Jesus also offers ways to make sure we do not break the commandments; don't call people names, have custody of your senses, do not swear by anything, don't suggest ways of subverting these commandments to others. We must live them, for this is the way to be great in heaven…..and remember, as St Paul reminds us in today's second reading, the Holy Spirit scrutinizes everything, even the depths of God.

"MUSIC has charms to sooth the savage breast" says William Congreve the renaissance poet. So come and be soothed and elated this week on Wednesday and then again on Friday and listen to two wonderful free concerts.

The Peterborough Cathedral Choir from England with Tansy Castledine will offer a concert on Wednesday at 7pm, and Les Petit Chanteurs boys' choir from France will be with us at the same time on Friday. Please make every effort to attend these two excellent choirs, and spread the good news of this event too please.

God bless, Fr Aidan-Peter CJ

Thank You From Debbie Swann and Family

To my brothers and sisters in Christ, thank you for your outpouring of prayers for Michael and me. We truly felt the power of your prayers and are eternally grateful. Thanks to those of you who offered Masses, the prayer groups, my former students, and everyone else who offered prayers, and to our wonderful Eucharistic Ministers who prayed with me and offered the Eucharist to me when I was finally able to receive; you are in our prayers. To our Good Shepherds, thank you for anointing me, praying with us, and for your visits. Our wonderful parish truly is "One Community Seeking to Become the Body of Christ." Again, thank you and God bless you all,
Debbie Swann

CHOICE

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well.

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Make a playground checklist

Parents sometimes think of playgrounds as "drop zones" for their kids — keep an eye or an ear out, but otherwise settle in on a bench while your child burns off energy. Nearly 170,000 children were injured on playgrounds in 2019, and a few moments of careful attention could keep your child from joining those ranks. When you get to a playground, check out the surfaces underneath the equipment, especially equipment that allows children to jump or hang from it. The ground surface should be soft and shock absorbent. Check equipment for visible dangers — loose or missing pieces, sharp angles, broken supports, etc. For more tips, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Playground Checklist" at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

Fr Aidan-Peter is concerned that people have been distributing political handouts at church and slipping some into the bulletins. No one has permission to do this nor will anyone be given permission to do so in the future. The only materials pertaining to the upcoming elections will be the USA bishops" points to consider when they are published. There has to be a clear separation of Church And State. Please can we all be vigilant about these matters.

MANTENLOS A SALVO

Haga una lista de verificación del parque infantil

Algunas veces, los padres de familia ven el parque infantil como "zonas de descarga" de sus hijos, mantienen un ojo o un oído sobre ellos, pero por otra parte solo llegan a sentarse en las bancas del parque mientras sus hijos queman energía. Casi 170,000 niños sufrieron heridas cuando jugaban en el parque infantil en el 2019. Solo unos pocos minutos de atención cuidadosa puede mantener a su hijo/a lejos de ser parte de esas estadísticas. Cuando usted llegue a un parque de juegos, revise las superficies debajo de los juegos, especialmente si es un equipo para que los niños salten o se cuelguen de él. El suelo debe ser suave y con buena amortiguación. Revise si los juegos tienen daños visibles, si están flojos o les faltan piezas, si tienen ángulos afilados, algunas partes quebradas, etc. Para más consejos, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® "Playground Checklist" (Verificación del parque infantil), en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx
