Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ November 14, 2021

Fr. Aidan Writes:

This week we hear in the gospel a vision of the end of times with, "the Son of Man coming in the clouds". We have this reading because we are fast approaching (next weekend) the feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. All our weekday readings will have this flavor of reflecting upon what happens at the end of time. This is not for us to get caught up in over reading issues of today being signs of the tribulation, but rather to remind us that our life and living today should find us watching and waiting with pure hearts and clean hands.

The first reading also reminds us to turn to St Michael the Archangel to be our Guardian. Pope Francis asks us to try and remember to use the prayer to St Michael for protection (composed by Pope St Leo in the 19th century) so I include it here for us all to have and use. It was often said at the end of Mass.

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

God bless, Fr. Aidan Peter CJ

Keep 'em Safe

Tips to keep our school communities safe

As children settle back into regular (for the most part) school routines, parents can help keep their school communities safe by following a few simple guidelines. 1: Be aware. Read up on the school's COVID-19 safety plans, and prep your children for what to expect. 2: Be charitable. Understand that everyone in school may not share the same views, and remind yourself and your children to be kind. 3: Be consistent. Help your children build healthy habits at school and at home. For more information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Back-to-school during the pandemic," at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

Mantenlos A Salvo

Consejos para mantener seguras nuestras comunidades escolares

A medida que los niños regresan a las rutinas escolares regulares (en su mayor parte), los padres de familia pueden ayudar a mantener seguras sus comunidades escolares siguiendo algunas simples recomendaciones. 1: Sea consciente. Lea sobre los planes de seguridad COVID-19 de la escuela y prepare a sus hijos para lo que pueden esperar. 2: Sea caritativo. Comprenda que es posible que todos en la escuela no compartan los mismos puntos de vista y recuérdese a usted misma/o y a sus hijos que deben ser amables. 3: Sea consistente. Ayude a sus hijos a desarrollar hábitos saludables en la escuela y en el hogar. Para obtener más información, solicite una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® en inglés, "Back-to-school during the pandemic" (Regreso a clases durante la pandemia) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

November 18th -"Give Thanks to the Lord" An Edge Night on Gratitude and Thanksgiving
November 25th - No Edge (Happy Thanksgiving)

I remember growing up there were two things I would hear repeatedly in homilies. The first is that we are all sons and daughters of God, and the second was that we are all called to be disciples. Now the first one I got pretty easily, especially because the pastor of the parish I grew up in would say it constantly and alway elaborate on it. But the second, being a disciple, this was something that I always struggled with growing up because I feel like no ever really explained it to me. Even in Confirmation, I would hear that we are called to be disciples but there was never really any elaboration to what it meant to be a disciple. This weekend we are talking with our year 2 teens about what it means to be a disciple and the life choices that must be made to go down this path. Being a disciple can be difficult and there are many bumps in the road, but it is worth it.
