St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.

We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.

We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.

Having been called by Baptism into that Body,

We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.

We are then sent to call others to Christ through who we are and what we do.

We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

LIVING THE WORD

Once again, our parish has answered the call from Our Lord to be our brother's keeper. And once again, our expectations were surpassed. We can't say "thank you" enough for your generosity and love for our brothers and sisters. And this year, every agency on the receiving end was absolutely pleased to receive diapers for the needy families with babies for their need is great. Thank you, SLDM parish for being a blessing to us by your example of living the Word of the Lord! We also want to thank Brian and Carol McKiernan of Budget Rental for the use of their van. And thanks also to John Cameron; Patti, Emma and Alexander Zumbro; Terry Fail; Rick Perez and our sons Joe and Mark Vasquez for their help in the collection, packaging, and delivery.

DID YOU KNOW?

What is “relational bullying”?

Relational bullying is unwarranted, persistent, unwelcome behavior in the form of criticism, isolation, or fabricated allegations that can damage relationships. Examples include social exclusion (“You can’t be with us”), spreading rumors (“Did you hear...”), and withholding friendship (“I won’t be your friend if you...”). Though relational bullying can often seem ambiguous to outside observers and often garners less attention than physical bullying or verbal bullying, it should not be discounted simply as normal, adolescent behavior. In fact, several recent studies suggest relational bullying is more strongly related to emotional distress and teen depression than any other form of bullying. Make sure your child’s school does not tolerate such behavior among its students.

¿SABIA USTED?

¿Qué es un “fanfarrón relacional”?

Fanfarronear en las relaciones es un comportamiento desagradable, injustificado, cruel y persistente, que puede destruir las buenas relaciones por medio de la crítica, el aislamiento, o alegatos fabricados. Los ejemplos incluyen la exclusión social (“Tú no puedes estar con nosotros”), lanzamiento de rumores (“¿Ya saben que...?”), retirar la amistad (“Ya no seré más tu amigo si...”). Aunque este comportamiento puede parecer ambiguo a un observador distante y llama menos la atención que el fanfarroneo físico, tampoco se debería de minimizar como un comportamiento normal entre adolescentes. De hecho, estudios recientes sugieren que este fanfarroneo relacional está más relacionado con el sufrimiento emocional y la depresión del adolescente que cualquier otra forma de trato cruel. Asegúrese de que la escuela de sus niños no tolere este comportamiento entre sus estudiantes.
