St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through who we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

BOOKS CHANGE OUR LIVES……..
What we read today walks and talks with us tomorrow. We read magazines, we read newspapers, we read Facebook, we read blogs, we read mystery novels and biographies. What was the last Catholic book you read? Each Catholic should read at least 1 Catholic book a year to promote their knowledge and deepen their spirituality. Here at St. Louis de Montfort we are so committed to the belief that “books change our lives”, that we will be providing that book this year at Christmas Masses as our gift to you. We hope that you will take the book, read it and share it with someone else who can benefit from it. This year’s title is The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic by Matthew Kelly.

DID YOU KNOW!  Santa Safety
Here are some simple guidelines for parents, guardians, and grandparents to employ to make sure that children have a safe and happy visit with Santa’s helper: When your child is with Santa’s helper, consider encouraging him or her to stand next to Santa or sit on the floor between his feet rather than sitting on his lap. Let your child know that it’s okay to tell Santa what he or she wants for Christmas but that he or she should also tell mom and dad because they are also Santa’s helpers…Secret surprises are special but no adult should ask a child to keep secrets from the child’s parents. Make sure that the Santa visit is out in the open—or make sure that parents, guardians, and grandparents are included in the interaction.

For copy of the VIRTUS® article “Safety for Children and Santa Helpers,” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

¿SABIA USTED? Seguridad con Santa
Aquí presentamos unas instrucciones sencillas para uso de los padres, guardianes y abuelos para asegurar que los niños tengan una visita de Santa segura y alegre: Cuando su hijo/a esté con Santa, considere animarlo/a a pararse al lado de Santa o sentarse en el piso cerca de sus pies en lugar de sentarse sobre sus piernas. Déjele saber a su hijo/a que está bien decirle a Santa lo que quiere para Navidad, pero que también le digan a Mamá y Papá porque ellos también son ayudantes de Santa… Las sorpresas secretas son especiales, pero ningún adulto debe pedirle a un niño que tenga secretos con sus padres. Asegúrese que la visita de Santa sea en un espacio abierto, o que los padres, guardianes y abuelos estén incluidos en la actividad.
