St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through who we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

LENTEN REFLECTION 2014
April 6
Be patient with yourself. When we’re confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. “What a bad person I am!” But that’s the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as He does, with unconditional love. (United States Catholic Bishops)

CASA
Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) of Santa Barbara County is a local nonprofit organization that trains community volunteers to advocate for abused, neglected, or abandoned children who are going through the foster care system and cannot depend on their parents to do what is in their best interests. A CASA volunteer is designated by the juvenile judge to advocate for the best interests of the child during this confusing and traumatic time in his or her life. CASA volunteers stay with a case until it is closed and the child is placed in a safe, permanent home. In many cases, the CASA volunteer will be the one constant adult presence in the child’s life.

If you are interested in further discussing any of the above-mentioned ways you can help, I can be reached by email tara@sbcasa.org or by phone (805)739-9102 ext. 2595.

DID YOU KNOW?
How Old Does a Child Need to Be in Order to Stay Alone?

Do not assume that when your child understands what you are saying, he is ready to walk out the door by himself. Besides the fact that many states have laws against leaving children of certain ages alone (for example, younger than 12), experts say children should not be left by themselves until they are capable of fighting off an abductor or handling a crisis situation. Experts also say children do not have the mental maturity to cross busy streets by themselves until they are about 10 or 12 years old. Finally, parents who are certain their young children would never walk away with a stranger will be shocked to learn that studies show they probably will. Stay alert and vigilant, even if you believe your child is aware of possible dangers from others. For particular help, call the Archdiocese’s Victims Assistance Ministry, (213) 637-7650.

¿SABIA USTED?
¿Qué edad debe tener un niño para permanecer solo?

No asuma que cuando su niño entiende lo que usted está diciendo, él está listo para salir fuera de la casa solo. Además del hecho de que muchos estados tienen leyes en contra de dejar los niños de ciertas edades solos (por lo regular menores de 12 años), los expertos dicen que los niños no deben ser dejados solos hasta que son capaces de luchar contra un raptor o de poder manejar una situación de crisis. Los expertos también dicen que los niños no tienen la madurez mental para cruzar las calles por sí mismos hasta que tienen 10 o 12 años. Finalmente, los padres que creen que sus hijos nunca se irían con un extraño serán sorprendidos al enterarse que estudios demuestran que sus niños probablemente sí lo harían y por su propia voluntad. Manténgase alerta y vigilante, aun cuando usted crea que sus hijos reconocen los peligros causados por otros. Para obtener ayuda en particular, llame a la oficina arquidiocesana del Ministerio de Ayuda a Víctimas, (213) 637-7650.

The cost is $50 a person. The first day of class is Monday, May 5th from 6:30-9:30pm. Question/Answer

Starting this month we are starting a new feature on our parish website: www.sldm.org. Parishioner generated questions will be answered on the website, and there are two items on their now. To access them, you go to the website; click on the tab “Education,” and the first thing in the list is “Questions and Answers.” Not all of the responses to questions will be necessarily in the format of q&a, but may be an article generated by one question.

A NEW FEATURE ON THE WEBSITE: At the top right corner of the Home Page you can translate into any language; just click on the box and scroll down to any of the 4 languages and the entire website will appear in that language.

So...questions? Send your questions to fr.charles@sldm.org He will refer them to either a priest or deacon to write a response which you will find on the website.

God bless,
Fr. Charles, C.J.
