St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Religious Education & Junior High News:
Junior High group meets each Thursday from 7:15-8:30pm (new time for 2015) in Lou’s Grotto. New members & friends ALWAYS welcome! The group is open to anyone in 7th or 8th grade. For more information contact Kelly via email: kelly@sldm.org

LIVE Catholic: Our next workshop is TOMORROW Monday, February 23rd from 7:00-8:00pm in the upper room.
Live Catholic empowers parents to take an active role in growing faith in their children, from toddlers to teens, and raise their kids to be the people God calls them to be. Each date the workshop materials and presentation are different. It is not necessary to attend each workshop to participate. Come to one or come to ALL as you will learn something different on the subject at each session. (All parents of year 1 and year 2 Communion RE students need to attend 1 faith growth opportunity each year- AKA CAFE and the Family Night fulfills that commitment). If you have any questions, feel free to email: kelly@sldm.org

Sacredness and Dignity of the Human Person
Today’s readings show us that God gives tangible reminders of his committed love and his desire to be present to us; the rainbow after the flood, Jesus’ preaching, the waters of Baptism. How do we act as tangible reminders of God’s love, especially to those who are most in need?

Faith: The Next Generation – Pass it On!
RCIA Adapted for Children and Teens

Boldly go where many have gone before and help pass on the Good News of Jesus Christ and our Catholic faith! Year round, we have children and teens who sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith! Year round, we have children and teens who sign up to learn more about Jesus and the Catholic faith. They wish to become fully initiated members of God’s Church. At this time, the RCIAC program is in need of catechists to teach the youth. You can help by becoming a catechist. As you nurture the faith of our youth, you too will learn and grow in your faith and personal relationship with God! As one long-time catechist put it, “I learn so much from the children!” We provide you with training, materials, and support. If interested or for more information, contact Br. Jose Orozco at (805) 937-4555 or jrorozco@sldm.org

Catholic Men For Christ — February 25, 2015

Topic For The Week — “The Lenten Desert”

Opening Question — What are, and how efficacious are our Lenten sacrifices? - Thought for the Week -

“Buy for yourself from Christ gold purified in fire; for with your filth as if burned away in the fire, you can be like pure gold, if you are cleansed by almsgiving and by works of justice.” (St. Cyprian of Carthage; 253AD)

THE VOCATION AND MISSION OF THE FAMILY IN THE CHURCH AND CONTEMPORARY WORLD

In preparation for the Synod of Bishops to be held in October 4-25, 2015 on “The Vocation and Mission of the Family in the Church and Contemporary World,” the Vatican has asked the world’s bishops for a “broad consultation.” In order to facilitate the response from the Archdiocese, we have established an on-line survey that enables Catholics to respond to a set of questions that the Vatican has proposed for reflection. The survey can be accessed on our home page: http://www.la-archdiocese.org/ or directly at: http://survey.la-archdiocese.org/. Pastors, academic leaders, leaders of Catholic agencies and organizations, leaders of religious congregations and lay movements and ecclesial associations, are asked to distribute this consultation as widely as possible. Individual as well as organized group responses are acceptable responses to this consultation. Responses are to be made by Monday, March 9 in order to be included in the report that the Archdiocese will present to the United States Catholic Conference.

Helping you build CONFIDENCE in parenting and DISCIPLINE in your family

Prepare the way for Dr. Ray Guerendi!
He is the father of 10, clinical psychologist, author, public speaker and nationally syndicated radio and television host—and this year he is our Lenten Mission speaker. His books, cd’s and DVDs are available right now for purchase in the rectory. Titles include: Discipline that Lasts a Lifetime; Marriage: Small Steps, Big Rewards, and What Catholics Really Believe

We all want direction, peace, and a better relationship with the children in our lives. Dr. Ray helps us love them enough to do what’s best for them, and for us, too. Mark your calendars for Mar 9-11, at 11am and 7pm in the church. “Your book was the most insightful parenting book I have ever read. I am recommending your book to as many people as I can. The humor in your book makes it a unique...as well as your common sense and giving parents credit for swimming against the stream.” -Erika

DID YOU KNOW? Child abduction: taking action
A recent study of the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children® revealed that 83% of children who escaped their would-be abductors kicked, yelled, and pulled away to escape. Teach your child these and other abduction prevention skills, such as: Asking for permission before changing plans; asking for permission before approaching or getting into vehicles with anyone; recognizing the tricks would-be abductors use, such as offering rides or asking for help; telling a trusted adult whenever anything or anyone makes them uncomfortable. When it comes to keeping your child safe, YOU are your child’s best resource. The more you know about abduction prevention, the better protected your child will be. Use your knowledge to make conversations about personal safety a regular part of your family’s routine. For more information, visit: http://www.kidsmartz.org/ChildAbduction

FIRST PASTOR HAS DIED
Our first pastor, Msgr Vincent McCabe, passed away over the weekend. Arrangements are pending. We will let you know as soon as we do.

SR. MARY JENSCH, DMJ
If you attended SJHS in its early days, you remember Sr. Gertrude Mary/ Mary Jensch. She was the first vice-principal at SJHS; working closely with Fr. Mark to put SJHS “on the map!” In the ensuing years Sr. Mary has worked in many interesting ministries. In her “retirement” in Palos Verdes, she has been busy with her raised garden, sharing the fruits of her labors. On the side, she was teaching ESL and preparing Spanish speakers for citizenship. Full schedule!! On February 20 after a very short hospital stay, Sr. Mary went to meet her Lord. We are all very much in shock, but we are grateful for the full life she lived and the joy she spread. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated at 11:00am, Feb. 28, at St. John Fisher Church, Palos Verdes.

As Sr. Mary herself would say: ”May she rest!” (From Sr. Catherine)
