St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body, We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

JESUS WASN’T TRAPPED BY THE NOTION OF POLITICAL CORRECTNESS. HE WASN’T BURDENED WITH THE NEED TO BE LIKED BY PEOPLE. HE WASN’T MOVED BY THE DESIRE FOR EXPEDIENCY OR CONVENIENCE. INSTEAD, HE SIMPLY ALLOWED TRUTH TO REIGN SUPREME.

Bible Study ??

We have in the rectory, a complete set of LITTLE ROCK BIBLE STUDY DVD’s, booklets, etc. that any group that wishes to take and use. Shine Communities members may be looking for something, other bible study groups might also like it. It would be best to keep the entire program together rather than split it up. Come and take a look. (They are stored in Fr. Charles’ office, and he would like to make room for Fr. Aidan Peter).
DID YOU KNOW?

Keep the lines of communication open with children

Your relationship with your child will go through several stages, but one thing to keep as a priority is the importance of honest, open communication—both from your kids, and from you. Your children should always know that they can come talk to you about anything, no matter how serious, and that you will make time to listen and respond. Without communication, parents don’t know important things about their kids’ lives who they talk to, where they go, who their friends are. These parents are far more likely to miss danger signs about potential bad influences or predators as well. For more information on how to foster communication with your child and for a copy of the article “Safety Rules by the Child Rescue Network” email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org

SABÍA USTED?

Mantenga abiertas las líneas de comunicación con los niños

La relación con su hijo pasará por varias etapas, pero lo que debería ser una prioridad es la comunicación abierta y honesta—tanto para los padres como para los hijos. Sus hijos siempre deben saber que pueden venir a hablar con usted sobre cualquier cosa, no importa qué tan grave, y saber que está disponible para escuchar y responder. Sin la comunicación los padres no van a saber cosas importantes acerca de la vida de sus hijos—e incluso con quien hablan, donde van y quiénes son sus amigos. Los padres que comunican con sus hijos son más probable a identificar señales de las influencias negativas y el abuso.
