St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.

We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.

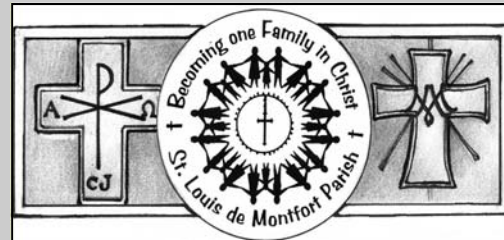

We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.

Having been called by Baptism into that Body,

We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.

We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.

We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:

A BIG THANK YOU to everyone who helped make the Christmas festivities go so well. The Church looks beautiful and we certainly celebrated the birth of the Lord with gusto. We are in the twilight zone now between Christmas and New Year, BUT please note various smaller feasts, St Stephen the first Martyr, St John the Evangelist, Holy Family, Holy Innocents, Mary, Mother of God, Epiphany... For the Christian Christmas starts on the 24/25th and is a twelve day festival. Secular society or more really the commercialism of Christmas starts in September and ends on 24/25th!! So please continue the party, be counter cultural, why not come to a weekday Mass? We must however always remember the heart of the festival season...the giftedness of God in the presence of Christ on earth. In this year of Mercy we recognize the Child as the Merciful Word of God made Flesh. The Christmas season can be a little testing time when everyone piles on top of each other in family gatherings and noses get put out of joint when people ask if there is a receipt to go with the un-wanted jumper! So keep the mercy theme strong at this time. A Jan 1st hint, if you make a New Year's resolution make one that is realistic and not going to dent your ego because it is too ambitious and is broken within a week. Think smaller in order, after success, to grow taller! One extra prayer a day will be a good start.

God bless you and your families for 2016

DID YOU KNOW? Take a time out to communicate

Sometimes, kids need a place to go where they can say what they want, and they won't be immediately punished or have to deal with a negative reaction. It's important to make sure your child has such a space or time – after dinner conversations, an ice cream spot, riding home from school – where they can tell you what's on their mind, good or bad, and you can just listen and discuss, without taking the instant parental approach. If your children feel safe talking to you openly, you are better equipped to notice and handle any red flags in their lives. THE HOUR OF GREAT MERCY 3:00 PM

Happy is the soul that calls upon the mercy of the Lord." (St. Faustina Diary # 598)
The prayer group meets Fridays at 3:00pm at the Josephite Chapel, 180 Patterson Road.

IMAGINE

Matthew Kelly writes "How would your life be different one year from now if you read five pages of a great Catholic book each day? "Imagine how your life would change. Begin by joining our book review every Thursday evening in January from 7 to 8. So pull out the book you were given a few years ago "The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic" and join us for a discussion of the book. We will do one or two chapters per week. More information to follow. Contact dorothyguida@comcast.net.

FAMILY LIFE

Family life is sacred, but it is not without trial. Perhaps this is the most important message we can glean from today's readings. If Jesus, Mary, and Joseph can trip up sometimes—can disconnect—then we shouldn't find it surprising when such things happen to us as well. And parents everywhere (children, too) can probably relate to—and take some solace in—the Gospel's account of Mary and Joseph after Jesus explained why he stayed behind in the temple. They heard his words, Luke tells us, "But they did not understand what he said to them" (Luke 2:50). Amen! Nevertheless, Jesus does go back home with them, and continues to thrive under their care

¿SABIA USTED? Tome un tiempo para comunicarse

Algunas veces los niños necesitan un lugar donde puedan ir y decir lo que quieran, y donde no serán castigados inmediatamente o donde tengan que lidiar con una reacción negativa. Es importante asegurar que su hijo o hija tenga tal espacio o tiempo, que puede ser después de las conversaciones de la cena, un lugar donde vaya a comer helado, o el trayecto de la escuela a la casa, donde él o ella puedan decirle lo que piensan, bueno o malo, y que usted sólo pueda escucharlos y discutir, sin tomar ninguna decisión inmediata. Si sus hijos se sienten seguros al platicar con usted abiertamente, usted estará mejor equipado/a para notar y manejar cualquier dificultad en sus vidas. Para una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® "Modeling Good Communication," (Modelando buena comunicación) por favor envíe un email a: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Or stop by and tour the facilities. Thank you for your continued support and God Bless You.
