St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body, We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes: This weekend at St Louis (next week at St Anthony’s and San Ramon) we have the In-pew Exercise for the Together in Mission Appeal. I know that for some this is an intrusion into the liturgy. However, as one of my confreres is often wont to say, “Look at it this way”… The Homily is the time when the priest breaks open the word of God and helps us marry the scriptures we’ve just heard with the reality of the world we live in. The Gospel today is that wonderful start to the ministry of Jesus when he opens the Isaiah scroll in the synagogue and tells them that the Spirit of the Lord is upon him and he is going to inaugurate a wonderful era of good news and salvation for the poor, the disadvantaged, the oppressed and the marginalized. How better could we put that mission of Christ’s, which is our mission too, into effect than using some of our hard earned but nonetheless gifted wealth to assist our brothers and sisters in such a practical way? I do ask you enter fully into this process and be as generous and compassionate as I know you have been in the past. In this way we will be doing the thrust of the 1st reading “…allot portions to those who have nothing and are not prepared”.
God bless
Fr Aidan Peter CJ

Setting boundaries fosters healthy relationships We create boundaries to keep our lives in order, for example many adults separate personal and professional relationships. Trusted adults can help teach children to do the same. Boundaries are essential in the foundation of relationships, and children should be comfortable expressing where they draw their own lines. “No means no” is easy to say in theory, but it should be respected in practice by your kids and their friends, teachers and other adults. Teach your kids how to explore their own comfort zones and give them time to tell you about their experiences. Open communication helps them understand that setting boundaries is part of life. For a copy of the Virtus® article “Good Boundaries Yield Healthy Relationships” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org

DID YOU KNOW

Establecer límites da lugar a relaciones saludables

Establecemos límites para mantener nuestras vidas en orden. Por ejemplo, muchos adultos separan sus relaciones personales de las profesionales. Adultos en los que se puede confiar pueden ayudar a enseñar a los niños a hacer lo mismo.

Los límites son esenciales en el cimiento de relaciones y los niños deben sentirse cómodos al expresar dónde ellos desean poner sus propios límites. En teoría es fácil decir “No significa no”, pero debe ser respetado en la práctica por sus hijos y sus amistades, profesores y otros adultos. Enseña a sus hijos cómo explorar sus propias zonas de comodidad y déles el tiempo para que le cuenten sobre sus propias experiencias. La comunicación abierta les ayuda a entender que sentir fronteras es parte de la vida. Para una copia del artículo de Virtus®

Together in Mission
The parish raised $32,000+ over the target last year. This allows us to fund more mission activities here I the parish. Our generosity helped over half a million catholics. The three week process was launched on the weekend of 10/11 Jan with a call to prayer. On 16/17 January we all receive a letter in the Bulletin from Abp Jose calling upon our generosity for 2016 and showing how we have helped in the last year. Using this information we are called to think about how we can respond this year. On the weekend of 23/24 we have the “In-Pew Process” of signing up to contribute to this appeal.
It is always a bit of an intrusion but it is best viewed as a homily in action in which, rather than talking/listening about charity, we actually undertake our charitable commitment. Please be generous.

St. Louis de Montfort Catholic School is now taking applications for Fall enrollment. If you have a child between the ages of 5 and 12-13, we have a wonderful, Catholic and academic place for you. Give your children the gift of a rigorous education filled with the spirit of service to family, community and the world, at an affordable price. It is our belief that every child should have access to a Catholic education. Come and look at the school, take a tour and talk to Mrs. Kathy Crow about the endless possibilities awaiting your family.
