St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
In our Gospel today, Jesus is preparing the Apostles for a future without Him physically present in their midst. He is going to die for them. But He makes the promise that they will not be alone. He promises the gift of his very Spirit, the Holy Spirit from His Father. However he prefaces this by reminding them about receiving and keeping the word alive within themselves. Jesus talks about making a dwelling place for the word. This has echoes in the Liturgy when we say the communion invitation response. “Lord I am not worthy to receive you under my roof...” These are of course the words of the Centurion whose daughter he begs Jesus to cure. They are also reminders of this indwelling of the word and of our nature through baptism to be a Temple for this promised Holy Spirit. (Temples have roofs!). God indwells within us, there’s no getting away from Him! So, in this latter part of the Easter season, avail yourselves of the time to prepare for the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost after our Lord ascends to his glory. It is only by being open to the Holy Spirit of the Word of God sent from the Father that we might in our turn hope to ascend to our glory when our time comes.

Please pray for our 1st Holy Communion children and our Confirmation Candidates who will receive their sacraments on the 7th and 14th of May respectively.

It was wonderful to see so many at the Mass and picnic in Pioneer Park last Sunday and the joy it brought to the parish to honor Deacon Doug and Natalie his wife. None of us will forget Doug’s own romantic gesture of the corsage he gave to his loving and supportive wife! Thanks to the Knights for the excellent food and to the youth group volunteers for serving, and for all who prepared and ministered the Mass, most memorable. A Great Day!

God bless

DID YOU KNOW
Stress can affect your child
Everyone has stress, whether it’s a bad day at work, car trouble, or simply too many things to do. It is important to learn how to manage your stress—for your own sake and for the children around you. Too much stress can make it hard to parent effectively. After a while, your children may show signs of being stressed out, too. For a fact sheet on managing stress please email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

Gospel this week – John 14:23-29
“The Advocate, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you.”
Discussion Topic of the Week - Pope Francis’ Amoris Laetitia Chapters 7-8
Wednesday, May 11, 6:30-8:00 pm. Mahan room (Parish building)
Come join us to discuss the readings for the upcoming Sunday, topics relevant to men / family life and time for prayer. Every 2nd and 4th Wed. of the month.

Thought for the Week -
“The Gospel goes on to remind us that children are not the property of a family, but have their own lives to lead. Jesus is a model of obedience to his earthly parents, placing himself under their charge, but he also shows that children’s life decisions and their Christian vocation may demand a parting for the sake of the Kingdom of God.” (Pope Francis, Amoris Laetitia, #18)
