St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
Well, we move into so called Ordinary Time, but the next two Sundays have feasts not from the Gospel life of Christ but rather from our theological journey. They are about who we understand God to be and the glory of Christ in the Eucharist; Trinity and Corpus et Sanguinis Christi.
The Feast of the Trinity invites us to contemplate the reality of God in and of “him”self. There is a wonderful Greek word used to help us enter into this interrelationship of the three in one God, perichoresis! (yup, you heard it here first folks!) It means the dance (from where we get the word terpsichore). The Father’s love for the Son and the Son’s love for the Father is so intertwined and so active it is like a dance, and their Holy Spirit pours out from this dance which would not work one without the other.
Remember that this is an analogy because we are trying to understand mystery in its most profound form, God.
God has a life within “him”self, this is called the Immanent Trinity and a life that connects with creation which is called the Economic Trinity; this does not mean trading or fiscal economics, but the interface between the utterly other God and how “He” communicates with us. We cannot fathom the former, just contemplate it and adore it, but we can and must relate to the latter Economic Trinity. This is at the heart of the Year of Mercy. Pope Francis refers to this as God revealing himself to us with the Face of Mercy. The Immanent Trinity is omniscient, omnipresent, onnipotent, etc and these characteristics are marvelous but be-Yownd our full comprehension. But the characteristic that we can and must appreciate and respond to in imitation is that God revealed his infinity mercy to us in Jesus Christ. Our relationsh ip with God is response to his mercy and we must pass this on to all we meet along life’s byways. So today we give glory to God for the mystery that he is and give thanksgiving for revealing himself to us through the mercy of Jesus Christ.
You may wonder why I have put “He” or “Him” in inverted commas. God has no sex or, rather, is all sex. We use Father and Son because we are limited in language. But it is interesting that the first mention of God in Genesis 1.1 is the “Spirit of God hovering over the void”! this word for Spirit in Hebrew Ruach also means breath and in Hebrew the word is…feminine! There you go girls, our first notion of God is as a “she”!

God bless you and your families and the week ahead Fr AP

Topic of the Week -- Pope Francis’ Amoris Laetitia

Come join us to discuss the readings for the upcoming Sunday, topics relevant to men / family life and time for prayer. Every 2nd and 4th Wed. of the month.

- *Thought for the Week - *

“In a word, we are called to show mercy because mercy was first shown to us”. This is not sheer romanticism or a lukewarm response to God’s love, which always seeks what is best for us, for “mercy is the very foundation of the Church’s life. All of her pastoral activity should be caught up in the tenderness which she shows to believers; nothing in her teaching and her witness to the world can be lacking in mercy”. (Pope Francis, Amoris)

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION

Sunday, 29th of May at 2:00pm. Starting in the Church, the Blessed Sacrament is carried in the procession around the campus, stopping at three altars, and is brought back for a final benediction. The event is bilingual. All parishioners and groups are invited and welcome.

USHERS……USHERS………..USHERS

11:30 Mass is in need of full time ushers. This is a commitment to being in the vestibule at least 10 minutes before Mass, to communicate with the other ushers, and to coordinate the collection. This may sound ominous, but volunteers respond generously to my “call “ each Sunday. Interested? I hope to be inundated with calls. Blessings…Sr. Catherine
