St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
After last week’s Gospel where Jesus cut through a taboo by touching the funeral bier carrying the widow of Nain’s Son, now we are presented with another taboo being broken. The woman washing, anointing and kissing Jesus’ feet was considered an outcast, a woman of scandalous reputation. Yet it is she, not Simon the host, who offers the proper greetings to an honored guest. Last week’s widow of Nain was in dire straits; for a widow to lose her son meant that she had nothing and no one to look after her and was thus thrown on the liminal charity (or not) of her town. The woman in today’s Gospel had already been cast to the margins of society by the self-righteous judgements of the community. The lowly outsider, the liminal in society, is where Christ connects. Jesus touches or is touched. These Gospel events illustrate this great inner desire to be connected to God. Jesus does not reject an out pouring of love no matter from what source. This is good news for us since we are all sinners and the good Lord does not spurn our praises!

The Church teaches us that we should have a preferential option for the poor. We have millions in our society in general and many living amongst us in our local community. The poor are with us always we are told by Christ, and we must respond to their needs. Indeed the poor can be demanding and/or difficult to help at times for umpteen reasons but we must respond…and I know we do. Our Rosemary Hill Pantry, for instance, provides much needed food on a daily basis for many local people who bless us in their need. At the Catholic Charities Dinner last Sunday we heard of an amazing project, Showers for Christ, which operates in Santa Barbara. It is a mobile showering facility where the homeless can come and get a good shower and shave, etc., and a fresh set of clothes. [hmm now there’s an idea!] Yes, the poor are needy, and it is into their need (misery/suffering) that mercy must flow from our hearts; not pity, but Misericordia where our love flows from our hearts into the misery/suffering of the other and transforms it, because that is the dynamic of God’s redeeming grace for all of us.

Implement safety rules for kids going to summer camp

Summer camp is a time-honored tradition for kids. Whether it’s an all-day camp or cabin sleepaway, kids can get out of the house, learn new skills, and make friends. Parents who send their kids off to camp should be sure to research the camp and the counselors who will be watching their kids. If your child is going to sleep-away camp, check in by phone or mail regularly. Ask questions and ensure that your child is safe and cared for at any camp. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Summer Camp Preparation” email jviena@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

Implemente reglas de seguridad para niños que van a campamentos de verano

El campamento de verano es una larga tradición para los niños. Ya sea que se trate de un campamento de un solo día o uno de varios días o meses en una cabaña, los niños pueden dejar la casa, aprender nuevas capacidades, y hacer amistades. Los padres de familia que envían a sus hijos a estos campamentos deben asegurarse de investigar el campamento y a los consejeros que estarán cuidando a sus hijos. Si su hijo/hija va a ir a un campamento de varios días, llame y escriba correos electrónicos a su hijo/hija con regularidad. Haga preguntas y asegúrese de que su niño/niña esté seguro(a) y bien cuidado(a) en cualquiera tipo de campamento. Para una copia del artículo de VIRTUS®, “Summer Camp Preparation” (Preparación para campamento de verano) envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

Catholic Men For Christ — June 22, 2016

Today’s Gospel – Luke 7:36-8:3 “The one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.”

Wednesday, June 22, 6:30-8:00 pm. Mahan room (Parish building)

Topic of the Week - ‘Only the Christ brings real freedom.’ Can children be taught this truth?

Come join us to discuss the readings for the upcoming Sunday, topics relevant to men / family life and time for prayer. Every 2nd and 4th Wed. of the month.

- Thought for the Week -

“We do indeed need a savior (and not just a teacher), but there remains in us something to be saved. Finding that quality, that light, that divine spark is equally essential to the process of metanoia, a change of heart.” (Bishop Robert Barron, ‘And Now I See’. Pg. 66)

THANK YOU FROM UNBOUND AND FATHER ‘RICK LABRECQUE': Last weekend was my introduction to Santa Maria and what a blessing it proved to be -- well worth the obstacle-ridden trip from South Carolina! My heartfelt thanks to Father Aidan Peter for the invitation to Unbound and to all for such a warm welcome. Above all, thanks to so many who have been sponsors for some time, and to the large number who signed up to begin sponsorship. God bless you! More information can always be found at Unbound.org.

GRACIAS DE PARTE DE UNBOUND Y EL P. ‘RICK LABRECQUE: Poder celebrar la Santa Eucaristía con ustedes el fin de semana pasado y compartir el mensaje de Unbound fue por mi un gozo. Gracias al P. Aidan Peter por la invitación y a todos ustedes que respondieron, apuntándoese como padrinos de lejos por niños y ancianos en países pobres. Que Dios los pague. Mas información siempre esta a su disposicion a Unbound.org.
