St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body, We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
We must be clear about something, following Christ and living his merciful Gospel is to embark on a radical, challenging and constantly life changing journey that calls for us to grasp the briar of sin and to wear its thorns on our heads as we pick up our cross and follow Him.

The dreadful events in Orlando last weekend were and continue to be horrific. No one, no matter their race, religion, sex or sexuality deserves to be killed or to be on the receiving end of any prejudice or hatred…no one…ever…period. Paul’s letter to the Galatians makes this very clear, we must not compartmentalize people. All differences fall away and barriers come down between people because of the Christ Event. The death and rising of the Son of God has set a new agenda for the world and given us the new modus operandi…and it is mercy.

Mercy is tough. As I have said before, Misericordia, the outpouring of heart into the misery and suffering of others, is how we best respond to the world; it is God’s response in and through us. So it is not sufficient to just to say “I am sorry for your loss” – though we may be, or simply say “I hold you in my heart” – though we surely do, or just, “I’ll pray for you” – through we must. When we mercifully engage with another our hearts too must change, must develop, grow, deepen, beat harder.
In our response to this horrific violence we must also ask, “has my heart been a little lukewarm because the majority of the victims happened to be part of a community that I may in my ignorance have some prejudice against? Has another ventricle of my heart hardened against Muslims because of this mad man’s actions?

Mercy-ing must change our life as it outpours to another’s. Let us not allow such a horrific event to subtly and insidiously harden our hearts in certain directions when we are pouring out our mercy in another. I believe we are a great community of mercy in this parish, as witnessed by the excellent presentations by various parishioners at last Monday’s Mercy and Ministry reflection evening. All of the presenters, and all involved in corporal and spiritual works of mercy, know that as you mercy your heart grows and becomes ever more inclusive of all; especially those we find difficult, those we don’t understand, and those with whom we might not want to associate. If our mercy-ing does not expand our heart for the world then we are being half-hearted in our vocation to be the image of God in the world whose face is mercy.

God bless you and the week ahead

Protect kids from bullying while playing online
The pace of online gaming is only growing. There is a small but real chance that victimization could occur when kids play and interact with others on phones, tablets, laptops, desktops and gaming consoles. A helpful way to teach children about handling problems is to encourage them to report issues when they arise. Internet service providers and gaming networks have systems set up to field complaints of abuse and then investigate them (in conjunction with law enforcement, when necessary). For more tips on how to help protect young people from vulnerabilities while playing online please email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227 to receive a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Preventing Cyberbullying in Online Gaming, Part 2.

Catholic Men For Christ—June 22 2016

“...If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

Wednesday, June 22, 6:30-8:00 pm. Mahan room (Parish building)

Topic of the Week - ‘Only the Christ brings real freedom.’ Can children be taught this truth? Come join us to discuss the readings for the up-coming Sunday, topics relevant to men / family life and time for prayer. Every 2nd and 4th Wed. of the month.

-Thought for the Week -

“Fathers are those who beget life. And while physical life is a marvel, spiritual life, which comes form intimate knowledge of God, is a yet more wonderful thing. ‘The Fathers’ begat this life primarily through their teaching.” (When The Church Was Young; Marcellino D’Ambrosio) ¿SABIA USTED?

Proteja a los niños del acoso o “bullying” mientras juegan en Internet El paso de los juegos en línea sigue aumentando. Existe una pequeña, pero real oportunidad de que pueda ocurrir la victimización cuando los niños juegan e interactúan con otros en teléfonos, tabletas, laptops, computadoras de mesa y consolas de juego. Una manera útil de enseñar a los niños sobre cómo manejar problemas es animarlos a reportar problemas cuando surjan. Los proveedores de servicio de Internet y las redes de juegos por Internet tienen sistemas establecidos para recibir quejas de abuso y luego las investigan (en conjunto con la policía, cuando es necesario). Para más consejos sobre cómo ayudar a proteger a los niños y jóvenes de las vulnerabilidades que pueden surgir en línea, por favor envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508 para recibir una copia del artículo de VIRTUS®, “Preveniendo el acoso cibernético en los juegos en línea, Parte 2” (Previniendo el acoso cibernético en los juegos en línea, Parte 2).
