St. Louis de Monϩort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
I feel somewhat awkward as an Englishman writing to you about the election. Also, given the timeline of the production of this bulletin by the printers, I am writing before the event has actually taken place! Furthermore, I am constrained as a pastor by law to make any public remarks which could influence voting [as if I could!]

But it needs to be said that after such a contentious election campaign and by two of the least liked candidates - both of whom revealed deep character flaws (this is not only my assessment but a pretty universally held position) - we need to know how we can unify this nation. I fear great fault lines have opened up, the distance between opposing camps has widened to the point of an inability to enter dialogue or be reasonable with each other. Both parties need to look at their selection processes, their policy development and manifestos…and how to shorten what has become a wearisome 18+ months of bitter campaigning, rhetoric and vulgar nastiness, plain and simple.

Healing needs to take place. Whoever is the President of this great nation must govern for all and unite the country. We as citizens, and in my case as a resident alien, must work hard to rediscover the basic identity of our nation by remembering and realizing the first word in the name of this truly great nation the UNITED States of America, which I have come to greatly admire in my first year with you all. Grudges, resentments, shaking our heads in disgust that our candidate/party did not win and digging our heels in will not be the way forward. Let’s move on and be good and faithful citizens [as laid out by the US Bishops in last week’s bulletin insert] by applying those great virtues that we hold dear which help us build the Kingdom of God when things are difficult; reconciliation, respect, realism, resolve for the good, hope and above all mercy. God bless America. God bless you all,

Fr Aidan Peter CJ [The Brit Abroad]

DID YOU KNOW?
Bullying prevention starts at home
From cyberbullying to name-calling and exclusion, bullying can affect people of every age, especially kids and teens in school. Their peers can be cruel, so it’s important to talk about how to handle bullies, especially before a situation escalates. One way to stop the cycle of bullying is to teach kids to speak kindly to others and to treat everyone around them with respect. For more information, please visit https://www.faithandsafety.org/bullying

THANK YOU
Your parish Respect Life Committee and Knights of Columbus Council thank all our parishioners for their generous support of the recent bake sale and Tootsie Roll fundraisers. Thanks to your generosity, many programs to educate and assist persons and families in need will continue and help build a culture of life in our community.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CHRISTMAS SALE

¿SABIA USTED?
La prevención del acoso “bullying” comienza en casa
Desde el acoso cibernético, poner apodos y la exclusión, el acoso o “bullying” puede afectar a las personas de todas las edades, especialmente a niños y adolescentes que asisten a la escuela. Sus compañeros pueden ser crueles, de manera que es importante platicar con ellos sobre cómo manejar a los acosadores, especialmente antes que la situación escale. Una manera de detener el ciclo de acoso es enseñar a los niños a hablar con gentileza con otros y a tratar con respeto a todos a su alrededor. Para más información, por favor visite https://www.faithandsafety.org/bullying.

SINCERE THANK YOU TO PARISH
A week ago, we announced our Annual Blanket and Coat Drive, indicating it would be the last time we would be spearheading the drive. Little did we know that we would receive not only so many items, but also an abundance of love from you! And we felt every bit of that love. Our Lord lives in each and every one of us, and His presence is the greatest gift to us. His teachings through Holy Scripture, His suffering for us, have given all of our lives so many important lessons; and one of them is how Jesus found joy in helping others. The poor He served, the sick He healed, the troubled He encouraged — all found their hearts filled with His love and joy. And those who will receive the gifts you donated will come to know that it feels even better when we imitate Jesus' generosity and give to others, especially the gift of ourselves. To all our dear brethren, we give our most humble thank you for your generosity. And the assistance we received in this huge task from John Cameron, Terry Fail, and our son, Marcos Vasquez, was tremendous. Another thanks to Mr. and Mrs. KcKiernan of Budget Rental for the free use of their moving van, and to Albertson's management team for supplying the much needed heavy duty trash bags for packing.
With our most sincere love and thanks,
Deacon Doug and Natalie
