St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
Well it is incredible for me to think that I have now been the pastor here at SLDM for exactly one year to the day! Looking back on it, it has been a whirlwind experience. So much to do, so many people, so many smiles and much laughter, new ways of working and not without some awkward moments too (ie. my health scare)! All in all I think I’ve come out unscathed! Have you? I know I’m not perfect and may have stood on some toes but I hope we have started now on a strong foundation of trust and respect upon which to launch forward.

So what’s next? Well we are coming up to the end of the Year of Mercy that has been for us such a great blessing so perhaps we need another focus for our growth as a family. 2017 is for the Josephites and Daughters of Mary and Joseph a highly significant year; both the DMJs and the CJs were founded 200 years ago in 1817. So in this bicentennial Jubilee year we will have many things to celebrate.

Also I want us to look more closely at how we steward the resources we have in the parish of talent, time and treasure. There is much of all three and we need to grow in all three areas. The ministries fair was a start in this process so we will look into the ways we can pursue more fully our parish motto of “becoming one family in Christ”.

God bless you and your families, Fr. AP

THOUGHTS ON MERCY ……..
“The Church enables us to encounter the mercy of God which transforms us, for in her Jesus Christ is present who has given her the true confession of faith, the fullness of the sacramental life, and the authenticity of the ordained ministry.”

Pope Francis
DID YOU KNOW?
Teach your kids not to fear a predator’s manipulation.
Fear is a powerful motivator, and unfortunately, it fuels the secrecy behind many instances of child abuse. A predator will use fear to manipulate his or her victims, making it hard to end the abuse. Often, abuse victims are too scared or embarrassed to speak up, especially if the abuser is someone they know. Abusers can use close relationships to inspire fear of retaliation and may also stress that no one will believe their victim. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Don’t Let a Perpetrator Use Fear to Manipulate Your Child,” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call 213-637-7227.
