St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
Last weekend our musicians had an excellent time of ministry development with the composer Paul Inwood and his wife Catherine. Much was learned and appreciated and their pastoral approach was enlightening and non-threatening! If you feel you could help swell the numbers of one of our choirs, then please go up to the team after the Mass you attend and offer your services.
Also last weekend, we witnessed again the wonderful generosity of this parish in our response to the coat and blanket collection/drive. Again a large box van was filled up and several other pick-ups as well. I want to thank Doug and Natalie Halverson for their unstinting enthusiasm and organization of this annual appeal, along with their son Mark and John Cameron. Many people in this area will not be without warm clothes this winter. God bless your kindness and especially the anonymous gift of a $400 card for sleep bags etc from Big 5. Thank you one and all.
Next week will be our annual appeal for the Josephite missions in Africa. As you know, we serve in Congo, Cameroon and Gabon. The great news is that the Josephites are growing in number (at our General Chapter this summer we were 5% up in numbers from the previous chapter five years before) the difficult news is that we need to refurbish and build new accommodation for the scholastics; there are 16 in studies at present, and we need to build a new novitiate for our new novices. We also have six postulants. These are all good young men wanting to serve God through education in schools (we have twelve primary, secondary and vocational schools in Africa) and to support families in missions and parishes in some of the most remote parts of the interior. Your financial support next weekend will help us form these young men as “instruments of mercy in the hand of God”.
So as we enter November, the last month of the Year of Mercy, I ask you all to join with me reflecting on how we continue to “be merciful as our heavenly Father is merciful”. As St Paul says in today’s second reading, “Pray that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified… and …may the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ”.
God bless you and your families, Fr. AP

DID YOU KNOW?

Listen to and communicate with your teens
If you have a teenager, chances are your relationship has changed, and often, communication may be a challenge. As kids grow up and start to realize and test their independence, the ways in which they talk to you may change. You may not always agree, but your respect and your ability to listen will help foster dialogue and extend the lines of communication. For more tips on talking to your teens and a copy of the VIRTUS© article “Communication Tip No. 14: Teens” please email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call 213-637-7227.

¿SABIA USTED?

Escuche y comuníquese con sus adolescentes
Si tiene un adolescente, existe la posibilidad de que su relación haya cambiado, y muchas veces, la comunicación sea un reto. A medida que los niños crecen y comienzan a darse cuenta y a experimentar su independencia, las formas en que hablan con usted pueden cambiar. Usted no siempre puede estar de acuerdo, pero su respeto y su habilidad para escuchar ayudará a fomentar el diálogo y a extender las líneas de comunicación. Para más consejos sobre cómo hablar con sus adolescentes y para una copia del articulo de VIRTUS© “Consejo de comunicación No. 14”, por favor envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

Catholic Men For Christ

Next meeting – Nov 9, 2016

“They can no longer die for they are like angels.”

Wednesday, Nov 9, 6:30-8:00 pm. Mahan Room (Parish building)
Readings for Nov 13– ‘You will be hated by all because of my name’ 2Thess 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19
Topic of the Meeting – ‘What best describes ‘manly’ courage?’ As Christian sons and fathers, do we have any responsibility toward God’s revealed truth? What ways do we prophesy?

Come join us to discuss the readings for the upcoming Sunday, topics relevant to men / family life and time for prayer. Every 2nd and 4th Wed. of the month.

-Thought for the Week- “Civil authorities should punish any violation of the rights of individuals to their reputation and privacy. They should give timely and reliable reports concerning the general good, or respond to the well-founded concerns of the people. Nothing can justify recourse to disinformation for manipulating public opinion through the media. Interventions by public authority should avoid injuring the freedom of individuals or groups.” (CCC para. 2498)
