St. Louis de Monƞort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
Well, we have come to the end of the Year of Mercy. What a joy it has been for the parish. We have had many opportunities to reflect both personally and collectively to deepen our understanding of this greatest of God’s gifts.
We need to finally remember that although the special jubilee year has come to an end we have not! On the contrary, we go on from this privileged time of spiritual growth to make the world a more merciful place, this is our mission.
We live in a very unforgiving world at the moment, and the gift of the merciful face of Christ revealed by us is needed as much, if not more, than ever.

When we are merciful, we put into effect three things.
Firstly, we “do unto others as we wish them to do unto us”, secondly “we love God by loving our neighbor as ourselves” and thirdly through mercy we “love one another as I have loved you”. These three great commandments of love show us how to be the very face of God in the world.
In a world of judgements, be they opinionated, facile, legalistic or harsh, mercy allows us to bring a sense of humanity, care and civility that is filled with hope and principle for a better future.

So where do we go from here? Do we just stop as the Holy Door closes? Well no of course not. People sometimes ask me, “What is the use of the Mass? What’s it for?” Well here you have it. The theme of mercy is woven into every Mass in the opening rites and it evolves through our encounters with Christ in the Mass to be the peace rites. So that is what we must come to appreciate more fully and apply in our daily lives. Our application of the mercy of God, that we have received firstly from him, we then apply to our world to bring it peace. Not to use this gift of mercy is to be selfish and to be judged by our selfishness.
“Blessed are the merciful for they shall have mercy shown them”. Through our encounter with the merciful Word of God and nourished by God’s very self through the merciful sacrifice of Christ his Son in the Eucharist our sinfulness is overcome and we are charged with the mission of God to bring peace, the Easter message to the world. So like the Mass, the year is ended, Go in Peace.

God bless you and your families and the week ahead.

“Only pray for me that I may have the strength both inward and outward; that I may not merely speak but have also the will; that I may not only be called a Christian but may also be found to be one. For if I be found to be one, then I can also be called one and be deemed faithful even when I am no longer visible in the world.” (St Ignatius of Antioch; letter to the Romans, 110AD)

Ministry Formation Center: Consider taking training to become certified as a Catechist. Basic faith “formation” is an essential step in developing ourselves as proclaimers of the message of Jesus Christ. It is our belief that those who serve in ministry deserve to be nurtured and fed as mature Christian adults in their own faith. SLDM is hosting a training that will enhance knowledge of our faith and our church, while enriching our personal faith and developing skills to become a more effective catechist. The cost is $50 a person. The first day of class is Friday, January 6th from 6:00-9:00pm. To view all the dates and/or to register go to: http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/ore/Documents/CF-StLouisdeMontfortWinter%202017%20SBPR.pdf (printed copy available in RE office). Any questions please email: kelly@sldm.org Any adult is welcome to attend the training to grow in your faith.

November 19, 2016 marks the 20th annual "Celebrating Young Adults in Ministry," an event which recognizes the contributions that young adults make to the life of our local faith communities. This year our parish has chosen to honor Shannon McAuliff, Ocarina Talamantes, Victoria Tonascia and Marco Rodriguez. The “Celebrating Young Adults in Ministry” Recognition Mass was Scheduled for Saturday, November 19, 2016 at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in Los Angeles. Let us continue to pray for these young adults as they continue serving in ministry.
