St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body, We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
One of the joys of coming from England is that we don’t have termites over there, so tenting has never been something I have had to experience before. The staff have excelled themselves in the preparation, and organization of the parish whilst we are unable to operate as normally. We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.
This great big “Cover-up job” has made me think, a dangerous thing I know, but it seems to be the opposite of what the Christmas season is all about, the revealing of God. The Christ child has come as the Emmanuel, the God who walks with us, and as we hear in the preface prayer for Christmas we have now seen the invisible made visible which we say in the Creed.
Epiphany is the feast of extending that revelation to others, to all in fact. The Feast of Epiphany, which celebrates the arrival of the Magi, is the whole world coming to see Christ. It is an opening up of the gift of Salvation to the whole world. But how is this done in our age? It is done firstly by not being afraid to be people of faith. Secondly, our approach must not be defensive nor arrogant or self-righteous and exclu-sivist. We just need to witness to our beliefs by the mannner in which we live our lives and thirdly, we must remember that this is our mission, “to go out and spread the Good News”. So 2017 must be for us a real sense of mission, taking all we learnt and grew into from the year of mercy and apply it in our daily lives.
Again, I hope you all have a very blessed New Year.
May 2017 be for us a time of growth and mission in the service of the Lord.

God bless you and your families and the week ahead Fr Aidan Peter CJ

DID YOU KNOW?
Start the new year with your kids’ safety in mind. During the start of a new year, many resolve to do things differently: pray more, live better and cherish God’s gifts. It’s also a great time to recommit to putting the safety and well-being of children first. Look to Mary, the Mother of God, for examples. Model honesty, gratitude, and love to your children, and take steps to teach them about safety in the home and the world. This resolution to promote safety and happiness can make your new year the best one yet. ¿SABIA USTED?
Comience el año nuevo con la seguridad de sus hijos en mente. Durante el comienzo de un año nuevo, muchos deciden hacer las cosas de manera diferente: orar más, vivir mejor y apreciar los dones de Dios. También es un buen momento para volver a comprometerse a poner la seguridad y el bienestar de los niños primero. Mire a María, la Madre de Dios, por ejemplo. Modelo honestidad, gratitud y amor a sus hijos, y tome medidas para enseñarles sobre la seguridad en el hogar y en el mundo. Esta resolución para promover la seguridad y la felicidad puede hacer que su nuevo año sea el mejor hasta ahora. PROJECT JO/ NOREEN....Sr. Catherine
We have no idea how we have impacted the lives of those who were recipients of the generous donations (Jo/Noreen). Most probably we will not meet the recipients face to face, but God knows and blesses! My request is that we do not wait till Thanksgiving/Christmas to be “generous.” I am happy to be the liaison for any donations; believe me, I see and hear many heartbreaking stories. Let us be awake to the call of the Lord this New Year.
