We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, we celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:

Next Saturday the 28th, our children in the first communion program will be making their first reconciliations. This is a big step for them along their path to become closer in their lives to Jesus, their Lord of hope and forgiveness. Do you remember your first confession? For some it was a strange time of going into the box / the confessional and having to say our list of naughtiness out aloud to a man behind the screen. For others it was a great moment of realizing that we should sometimes ‘fess up’ and be honest before authority and that it makes you grow.

That last point is important for us to remember. The sacraments are primarily there to help us grow in our love of God and each other. We receive so much from them; God’s grace, his favor. For many going to the sacrament of reconciliation is a nightmare because they have focused on several erroneous thoughts; firstly they don’t like having to admit that they have been wrong (who does), they also may think that the priest may be shocked at them and punish them, and thirdly they just hate the thought of saying a profound ritualized “Sorry”. So please, please, please remember the positive feelings at the end of a good confession; how it is a relief to be rid of sins, how the moment of introspection was good, allowing you a real sense of honesty to prevail and the sense of being loved by the forgiving grace of God even though we might think we do not deserve it. A humbling gift.

One of the precepts of the Church is avail yourself of the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once a year, preferably in the Lent/Easter season (which is all about forgiveness). Why don’t you give it a go as if for the first time? You will experience a warm welcome and the abiding grace of the Lord, for he loves you unconditionally.

God bless you and your families, Fr Aidan Peter C.J.

DID YOU KNOW?
Speak up with concerns about a child’s environment Parent and caregiver observations can help protect a child in danger, and you should know when it’s important to speak up. Although it may be awkward to approach a parent you do not know, if you have witnessed a scenario where the child is in danger of physical or mental abuse, it is your responsibility to act in that child’s best interest. In addition to reporting concerns, think about any practical solutions that can help keep kids safe pending an investigation and solution.

JUVENILE HALL MINISTRY
The Juvenile Hall Ministry would like to give a special thanks to our fellow parishioners who volunteered their time to join us in singing Christmas carols. Each December our ministry attempts to host carols for the youth at the Santa Maria Juvenile Hall. This year our ministry had a wonderful turn out with a Josephite priest, two Josephite brothers, and members of the various parish choirs. From this special experience, our ministry has gained two more volunteers. We are most excited to have new members join our family.
God Bless and Happy New Year, The Juvenile Hall Ministry

¿SABIA USTED?
Hable acerca de sus preocupaciones sobre el entorno de un niño
Las observaciones de los padres y los cuidadores pueden ayudar a proteger a un niño en peligro, y usted debe saber cuándo es importante hablar. Aunque puede ser incómodo acercarse a un padre que no conoce, si ha sido testigo de un escenario donde el niño está en peligro de abuso físico o mental, es su responsabilidad actuar en el mejor interés de ese niño. Además de reportar preocupaciones, piense en una solución práctica que pueda ayudar a mantener a los niños a salvo en espera de una investigación y solució.

cupaciones sobre el entorno de un niño), envíe un correo
