St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:

From Pope Francis’ Little Book of Wisdom
The joy of the Gospel fills the hearts and lives of all who encounter Jesus. Those who accept His offer of salvation are set free from sin, sorrow, emptiness, and loneliness. With Christ, joy is constantly born anew.

Joy is born from the gratuitousness of an encounter! It is hearing someone say, but not necessarily with words: “You are important to me.” Saint Thomas said: “Bonum est diffusivum sui”——Good spreads. And joy also spreads. Do not be afraid to show the joy of having answered the Lord’s call, of having responded to His choice of love and of bearing witness to His Gospel in service to the Church. And joy, true joy, is contagious; it is infectious…….it impels one forward.

DID YOU KNOW?
Denial as a defense mechanism
It may be difficult to understand why an abuse victim does not come forward immediately to report an assault. For those who have suffered sexual assault or abuse, denial can be a powerful defense mechanism, one that allows them to cope with the trauma and its aftermath. Often, an abuser is someone the victim knows and trusts, which makes it even harder to understand why the abuse is happening, and harder to come forward and ask for help and protection. ¿SABIA USTED?
La negación como mecanismo de defensa
Puede ser difícil entender por qué una víctima de abuso no se presenta inmediatamente para reportar un asalto. Para aquellos que han sufrido asalto o abuso sexual, la negación puede ser un poderoso mecanismo de defensa, que les permita hacer frente al trauma y sus secuelas. A menudo, un abusador es alguien que la víctima conoce y en la que confía, lo que hace aún más difícil entender por qué el abuso está sucediendo, y más difícil de presentar y pedir ayuda y protección. Para obtener una copia del artículo de VIRTUS © “The Many Faces of Denial, Part 2” (Las muchas caras de la negación, parte 2), envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

DIVINE WISDOM
The Lord’s message, through Moses, was to “take no revenge and cherish no grudge . . . love your neighbor as yourself” (Leviticus 19:18). We might think, “Great in theory, but not always realistic!”

Then Jesus in today’s Gospel goes even further. Take a slap in the face and then turn the other cheek? Treat enemies the same as friends? Again, we’re tempted to think that those are nice ideals, but not very practical in the “real world.”

Paul echoes Jesus when he tells the Corinthians that what passes for human wisdom is absurdity to God. Divine wisdom casts sunshine on the good and the bad, showers rain on the honest and the dishonest—without distinction. We must examine our wisdom and common sense to see how they compare to the wisdom of God, and make adjustments accordingly.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES.....RICE BOWL 2017
As you remember, this is our Lenten Faith-in –action Program. It offers us daily opportunities to engage in the spiritual pillars of Lent:
Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving. It challenges us to reflect on what it means to live out the Gospel call to go to the margins and encounter those most in need. During the next 40 days we will encounter people—through their stories—from communities in India, Mexico, Ethiopia, and other places around the world. Please take home a RICE BOWL and use it. Pray, learn about the country, sample the food. Consider downloading the CRS Rice Bowl app to receive daily reflections and inspiration.
(Thank you...Sr. Catherine)
