St. Louis de Monfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body, we celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:

Passion Sunday (also known as Palm Sunday) starts Holy Week. If one looks at the Gospels we notice that apart from the earliest moments of Christ’s birth, and then a few chapters of his travels, preaching and teaching, by far the most detailed moment is the last week of His life. It is this week that it all comes together, “it is accomplished” as Jesus says from the Cross and it starts to make sense. I say starts because even two thousand years on we are still peeling off the flimsy layers of the onion that is the mystery of God’s forgiving, merciful love for us. This is for me the most extraordinary thing in our religion and sets it apart from others. God sacrifices Himself for us to liberate us from our bondage to sin and opens the gates of paradise for us when our time comes. This is mind boggling. Our fickle nature misguidedly clings to the pretense that we are in control of our destiny and that we can wrack-up the points to earn our way into God’s favours! To take that position is to completely fail to understand our baptism, when we are called a son or daughter of God upon whom His divine favor rests. Easter is the season of the process of God’s favor resting upon the world. The Creator redeems the world through the sacrifice of His Son and enlivens it with his Holy Spirit of life. Our voices on Palm Sunday re-echo the cries of the crowd as Jesus entered Jerusalem on a donkey. “Hosanna” they cry which means save us, which of course Jesus does despite the crowd’s clamoring to be saved into the baying for his blood and death on Good Friday. So the question for us is are we calling to be saved or are we going to call for blood?

God bless you and your families

Fr Aidan Peter CJ
PALM SUNDAY .......... ENCOUNTER OUR NEIGHBORS
We encounter Jesus this week in Jerusalem, a community He knew well. We prayerfully enter into our communities too, encountering those who are hungry and thirsty, and others who need our help.
How does our Lenten journey motivate us to serve those whom we meet in our daily lives?

STEP UP CLOSE TO JESUS
STATIONS MEDITATION, GOOD FRIDAY AT 7:00PM
Accompanied by words, pictures and songs, this powerful evening of prayer is a perfect way to spend Good Friday. All you have to do is bring an open heart. All ages invited!

Support our new Catholics!
Our Elect and Candidates in the RCIA have been preparing for months and years to receive the Sacraments of Initiation this Easter Season. Saturday, 4/15 at the Easter Vigil Mass, 17 people will be baptized, confirmed and receive their First Communion. Come witness this glorious expansion of our parish family at the Mass of Light, the Night of Nights! Afterwards, there will be a reception in the Parish Hall with refreshments where you can welcome our newest members.
The following week, 4/23 at the 11:30 P.M. Mass, 18 baptized Candidates will be received into the Church as they receive the sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion. There will also be a reception in the Hall for these excited new Catholics. Come join the party!

DID YOU KNOW?
You can support the Archdiocese Keep Kids Safe Campaign.

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month and the Archdiocese is providing all parishes and schools with the 2017 Prevent Child Abuse Resource Packet. Included, this year, is the “Keeping Kids Safe” pin-wheel stickers, decorations and children’s activities, which are a symbol of childhood and represents every child’s right for a life filled with hope, health and happiness. Through this campaign, we provide another opportunity to transform awareness into action. For more information on how to have your parish, school or family be a part of this important campaign, visit http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/safeguard/Pages/CAPM.aspx

¿SABIA USTED?
Usted puede apoyar la campaña “Mantenga a los niños seguros”

Abril es el Mes Nacional de Prevención del Abuso Infantil y la Arquidiócesis está proporcionando a todas las parroquias y escuelas el Paquete de Recursos para Prevención del Abuso Infantil 2017. Incluido este año está la calcomanía en forma de molino “Keeping Kids Safe” (Manteniendo a los Niños Seguros”), decoraciones y actividades infantiles. El molino es un símbolo de la infancia que representan el derecho de todos los niños a una vida llena de esperanza, salud y felicidad. A través de esta campaña, ofrecemos otra oportunidad para transformar la conciencia en acción. Para obtener más información sobre cómo hacer que su parroquia, escuela o familia sea parte de esta importante campaña, visite http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/safeguard/Pages/CAPM.aspx
