St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:

Thank you for all the kind regards to the Josephites and the DMJs on the 200th anniversary of our Foundation in 1817. We have been greatly touched by your warmth and congratulations.
Collaboration has been part of our spiritual and apostolic heritage all that time. Your support and your assistance in our efforts to bring the Gospel more fully into the lives of the young and all families is greatly appreciated and totally necessary. We would not be here today without generations of lay collaboration. Fr Ludo, as our Regional Superior, preached to the community of Josephites on May 1st that we stand not only on the shoulders of giants, Superiors General and so forth, but also on the broad shoulders of all the other community members and our collaborators. We walk in well-trodden footprints hopefully in the right direction!

In the parish we have several important moments happening over the next few weeks of May. All these events need your support with prayer for those receiving the sacraments and those celebrating.

This Sunday 7th is The Divine Mercy Congreso at Fairparks. Last year over 1000 people attended. It is a wonderful expression of faith in the Divine Mercy of God, led by members of the Hispanic community and visiting priests and bishop.

The following Saturday 13th we have two Masses for our First Holy Communion children; always a great joyful moment. This also takes place at Los Alamos on Saturday 20th.

On Sunday 21st we will have the parish picnic starting at noon with Mass. It will also be the celebration of Fr Aidan Peter’s silver jubilee.

On the last Saturday of the Month 27th we will welcome an old friend of the parish, Bishop Tom Curry, to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation.

All these events are annual expressions of the life of the parish all of which are important and witness to that vitality of Faith here in the parish.

So parish life goes on, no matter what happens outside the Church, and we remain faithful to God in Jesus Christ by being his mystical presence in the world as Church. This constancy and perseverance in celebrating and growing our faith makes St Louis de Montfort a very special place, not only in my eyes but also in the view of many others.

God bless, and as they used to say in years gone by “keep the faith!”

Fr Aidan Peter CJ

THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Twenty-third Psalm, today’s responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads “Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage” (Psalm 23:4) connects this week’s scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: “I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly” (John 10:10).

DID YOU KNOW?
Stress can affect the children around you. Everyone has stress, whether it is a bad day at work, car trouble, or simply too many things to do. It is important to learn how to manage your stress – for your own sake and for the children around you. Too much stress can make it hard to parent effectively. After a while, your children may show signs of stress, too. To learn more about how to identify and cope with stress, visit https://www.helpguide.org/articles/stress/stress-management.htm.

“May we dedicate ourselves prayerfully and actively to banishing violence from our hearts, words and deeds, and to becoming nonviolent people and to building nonviolent communities that care for our common home.”
