St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, we celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
I want to write about priesthood. This week I celebrate 25 years of Josephite Priesthood. I remember the day of my ordination vividly. It was in the chapel of St George’s College back in England where I was in community. The college choir sang along with another sixty diocesan choir members (I was at the time chair of the diocesan music committee), the organ music was to be French 20th century and the liturgical music was to be British, participatory and composed after Vatican II. The one anomaly was the exit anthem, Zadok the Priest which is Handel’s great Coronation anthem. As I went out with the Bishop he whispered in my ear, “Have I ordained you or just crowned you?!”. The reason for this piece was that the choir had it in its repertoire for their tour that year. It was fun.

But if you asked me 25 years ago what would I be doing I would never in a month of Sundays thought I would be here in Santa Maria as Pastor of SLdM; but I’m glad I am. I worked as a priest teacher in schools in London until I was 40. At that age I felt the need to move more into pastoral work and so I became a pastor in the East End of London for about 15 years and then, after a return to St George’s College as Josephite Regional Vicar, I was asked to come here. That’s the basic story line. But what does it mean to be a Josephite Priest?

It means to be able to live the Josephite Charism and Spirituality as an expression of service to you, God’s people, as servant of the Word and Altar. I am an instrument of His mercy; a preacher, a teacher, a liturgist and a confessor. It allows me the great privilege of walking with people in the highs and lows of their lives, helping them to discover more of the mystery of God’s love for them in their daily life experiences.

Priesthood is a life of apostolic adventure. You never know what the day has in store, a phone call; a knock on the door; can change everything. There are ups and downs but each day is its own world punctuated by the rhythm of prayer and Eucharist which anchors the life.

Finally, it is humbling. Everyday someone says something or does something kind or generous or wonderful that makes me feel true humility before them and God. I’m no good at taking a compliment so when I receive them I after wonder at God’s Almighty presumption to use me as a pastor. I’m a sinner and I need humbling!

But I do I hope he uses me for another 25 years.

God bless you and your families Fr Aidan Peter CJ

To Pray and Ponder
Mary, pray that I might treasure life, beauty, goodness, opportunity and truth.
Mary, pray that I might ponder how to defend life, how to see and hear beauty, how to affirm and share goodness, how to grasp and utilize opportunity, how to seek and proclaim truth.
Mary, pray that I treasure what I have and ponder what I may become.

DID YOU KNOW?
Avoiding gossip
Our natural inclination is to discuss concerns and problems with the people in our lives, but it can be easy for these discussions to slip into gossip. When gossip gets out of hand, it can damage reputations and create division and fear, without any discussion of how to resolve the problem. Teaching your children to avoid gossip and focus on truth starts at home—as always, parents lead by example. Try not to gossip about rumors or other people, and teach your children to seek solutions when there is a problem rather than just talking about it. For a copy of the VIRTUS© article “How Do I Avoid the Gossip Swirl?” email jvienna@larchdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

SAVE THE DATE

¿SABIA USTED?
Evitando chismes
Nuestra inclinación natural es discutir las preocupaciones y los problemas con las personas en nuestra vida, pero puede ser fácil que estas discusiones se conviertan en chismes. Cuando los chismes se salen de la mano, pueden dañar reputaciones y crear división y miedo, sin ninguna discusión de cómo resolver el problema. Enseñar a sus hijos a evitar chismes y centrarse en la verdad comienza en casa, y como siempre, los padres lideran con el ejemplo. Trate de no chismear sobre rumores u otras personas, y enseñe a sus hijos a buscar soluciones cuando exista un problema en lugar de simplemente hablar de ello. Para obtener una copia del artículo de VIRTUS © “How Do I Avoid the Gossip Swirl?” (¿Cómo evito el remolino de los chismes?), envíe un correo electrónico a bmelendez@larchdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.
