St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ
through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
The summer vacation is upon us and I hope you all manage to have a good one. It is probably my Englishness getting in the way but I much prefer the term “Holiday” to “Vacation”. Holiday, from “Holy Day”, implies a purpose and of course a religious one at that. Vacation to me denotes vacant or vacuum or …nothing! So my wish really is actually that you have a happy holiday full of holiness
and fun because as the L’Oreal adverts would say, “You’re worth it”!

During the Month of July Fr Alfred and I will be, with Fr Ludo, at the annual Enlarged General Council in Belgium for a week. We will also have time to see our families afterwards. So I will be away from the parish until 29th July and Fr Alfred until August 4th. Frs John, Mark, Ed & Charles will help out in the parish in the meantime.

Some folk have been asking about the building and maintenance projects that happen in the summer.
There are several that will take place including the surfacing of the car park. Details and dates, when they are finalized, will be published as soon as we know.
Several things out to tender and or having final planing points resolved. We only do such things when we have got everything in place i.e. “When we have all our ducks in a row”…or is that another of my odd English sayings?
I wish you all a very happy Independence Day and may God bless America.

God bless you all for the summer
Fr Aidan Peter CJ

ANGELUS...June 23, 2017 from Sr. Catherine
Many excellent articles in this issue. Here is one that really touched me:
Only Connect...author comments on the state of life, especially married life, in our society. (pp.22-23)
The whole article is well worth reading, but the last two paragraphs sum it up beautifully.
"We need to support those who stay the course with more than applause.
And we need to put young couples starting out together with mentoring couples who can guide them past the shoals and pitfalls.
Here's the secret we need to share: Those wedding vows are for real.
There are good times and bad times. There is richer and poorer, sickness and health.
But we also need to share that love grows.
There is a self-sacrificial aspect to love that has nothing to do with feelings or first sights.
It is more like a muscle that needs to be spiritually nurtured and exercised.
And if nurtured and exercised, that love gets deeper and richer and better over time.
How we meet isn't the important issue. It is how we stay together."
(an article well worth reading, and highlighting...no matter our state in life).

THE RICHNESS OF LIFE IN CHRIST
Today we have the beautiful story of the woman promised a child, the wonderful exhortation about life in Christ, and a powerful instruction from Jesus. An embarrassment of riches? Not if we take Jesus' words about "welcome" to heart. The many challenges and blessings offered to us today by Elisha, Paul, and Jesus should be cause for rejoicing, and welcomed heartily into our lives. And, like the great treat that they are, they should be enjoyed and shared generously with others.
Today's reading from Romans was chosen very early in the liturgical life of the Church to be the sole apostolic instruction received by candidates for baptism at the Easter Vigil. This illustrates its importance as a core belief, and as a means of comprehending the story of the Resurrection. Christ's resurrection is not merely a story about something that he underwent once upon a time, but it is our story, the story of how we joined the other members of the one Body of Christ, the church. We were not only dead, but we were buried; not ultimately buried, but raised to eternal life with Christ.

Creating boundaries for mobile phone Parents and caregivers may be more inclined during
t summertime to allow children to use mobile phones, especially when school is not in session. Consider the following tips to establish boundaries and help keep children safe when using a mobile phone:
--Contact service provider to block internet access and calls from unapproved phone numbers.
--Designate certain times that cell phone must be turned off (family meals, school hours, after 10 p.m.)
--Insist that parental permission is required for the download of any and all apps.

Appropriate for Children to be Provided with a Cell
Phone?" email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call

Creación de límites para el teléfono móvil
Los padres y cuidadores quizás estén más inclinados durante el verano a permitir que los niños usen teléfonos móviles, especialmente cuando la escuela no está en sesión. Considere los siguientes consejos para establecer límites y ayudar a mantener a los niños seguros cuando utilicen un teléfono mó-
vil:
--Contacte al proveedor de servicios para bloquear el acceso
a Internet y las llamadas desde números de teléfono no aprobados.
--Escoja ciertas horas en que el teléfono celular debe estar apagado (comidas familiares, horas escolares, después de las 10 p.m.)
--Insista en que el permiso de los padres de familia es necesario para la descarga de todas y cada una de las aplicacioones.
Para solicitar una copia del artículo de VIRTUS “What Age is Appropriate for Children to be Provided with a Cell
Phone? (¿Qué edad es la apropiada para que los niños pue-dan recibir un teléfono celular?) escriba bmelendez@la-
