St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.

Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:

As you read this I will be driving from England to Belgium with Fr Adrian, the Regional Assistant Superior for England, to attend the Josephite Enlarged General Council meeting held at the Josephite French Speaking Boarding School at La Berliere. We will meet up with others including Frs Ludo and Alfred for this annual reporting, discussion and decision making meeting. At the end of it will be the annual celebration day for the European Josephites. Several of the English confreres will come over to Belgium for this event. It is a great time of brothers to be together in prayer and in community. It will have an extra blessing as Brs Gerardo and Romualdo will be renewing their vows at that celebration in the presence of Fr Jacob the Superior General. This is their first visit to other Josephite communities and regions and we hope it will be one to remember for them.

After that meeting, I will have a short break with my family especially to celebrate my brother James’ 60th Birthday. It will be a mad gathering of the clan! I hope you can find time to rest and recreate with your families this summer season. I’ll be back on Friday 29th July

Look after Fr John who will be overseeing all pastoral matters whilst I’m away. Fr Mark is rebuilding his strength after having a successful procedure to put in a pace maker. Frs Ed and Charles will help out with Masses and confessions.

God bless
Fr Aidan Peter CJ

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
The premier poet of the English language, Geoffrey Chaucer, introduced one of his most beloved characters, the “Wife of Bath,” by this telling remark: “Husbands at church door she had five.” Four times widowed, she was setting off on a pilgrimage, notably without number five. The church door is a curious detail, pointing to the fourteenth-century wedding custom of marrying on the porch of the parish church. The goal was to give maximum publicity to the consent of the groom and bride, and so consent was moved from the bride’s home to a public venue. The priest would stand in the doorway and begin by sprinkling the couple with holy water. He needed to make sure they weren’t too closely related and give them some instruction. He would direct the groom to pay the bride’s family a dowry, and then announce the monetary amounts to the interested passersby. Only then would the guests enter the church for the wedding Mass, during which the bride and groom would hold lighted candles. The gradual move from home to church and the shift from the bride’s father to the priest’s authority helped to protect the freedom of brides who weren’t quite as confident as the Wife of Bath.

From: Walking with Pope Francis
Suffering and Faith

Read Rev. 7:16-17
Prayer
"I know, O God, that my everyday sufferings are nothing compared to what so many people have to endure. I pray for them, and I ask you to help me to see my own sufferings as a path to growth in faith and love. May Jesus, my good shepherd, guide me—and all those who suffer—toward the water of life, where suffering is no more."

Practice
I will place my sufferings in God's hands today and trust that God is with me.
(Let us pray for all our parishioners who are suffering, physically, emotionally, spiritually.

DID YOU KNOW?
Protect against potential danger
Taking a few precautions can help children learn to protect themselves against potential danger and ease parents’ minds. Teach children to memorize their full name, address, and phone number, so they can provide the information to an adult if they are separated from their parents or caregiver. Instruct children to look for a police officer or other “safe” adult (e.g., a store or park employee) if they need assistance. Teach them how and when to dial 9-1-1. For more tips, request the VIRTUS® article “7 Precautions to Take against Kidnapping,” from jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

¿SABIA USTED?
Pasos para prevenir peligros
Tomar algunas precauciones puede ayudar a los niños a aprender a protegerse contra de peligro y aliviar la mente de los padres de familia. Enseñe a los niños a memorizar su nombre completo, dirección y número de teléfono, para que puedan proporcionar la información a un adulto si están separados de sus padres o cuidador. Instruya a los niños a buscar un oficial de policía u otro adulto “seguro” (por ejemplo, un empleado de la tienda o del parque) si necesitan ayuda. Enseñéles cómo y cuándo marcar 9-1-1. Para obtener más consejos, solicite el artículo VIRTUS © “7 Precauciones contra el secuestro,” de bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.

THREE O'CLOCK -- HOUR OF GREAT MERCY
"I feel the greatest joy in my soul when I come to know the truth" -- St. Faustina (Diary #410). The Divine Mercy Prayer Group meets Fridays at 3:00 pm at the Josephite Seminary at 180 Patterson Road. Come pray with us.

A HUMBLE KING
Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today’s readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches “from the River to the ends of the earth” (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!
