St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter writes:
This weekend at the 9.30 Mass we will welcome five people who have been enquiring about joining the Catholic Church and now want to proceed and join us. So this weekend we will celebrate the Rite of Welcome. For me, and I hope for you also, this is always a moment to rejoice when we consider what actually is happening. These good people are searching for God and have found in our community a sense of place and an expression of Faith that is appealing; it is where they feel they are coming home. What does this mean about us? Well firstly, we must be doing something right because they like us! Secondly, it is a moment to reflect upon our own lives of faith. If our faith really is important to us then we should have the courage of our convictions to go out and invite others who we know might be searching for meaning, hope and a relationship with God. We should not just be a welcoming Church, which we are, but we do need to develop as an inviting Church. We cannot welcome those we have not reached out to and invited. We need to take Jesus as our example when he says to the young man searching for God, “come and see”.

A most successful Pilgrimage finished with a closing Mass at San Lorenzo Friary last Sunday afternoon. Pilgrims in great numbers enjoyed what is now a 20 year old parish tradition. Such an event does not just happen; many people helped organize the event, as always lead by Fr John. I will not single anyone out here for fear of forgetting someone but also the event was undertaken as an act of faith and love rather than for recognition. Although I did not walk the route (someone had to be in the parish!!) I can say as pastor that I am very impressed and indeed proud of the parish, the pilgrims and all the pilgrim supporters. It was a great witness to our faith along the byways of the canyons. Perhaps next year I’ll get a chance.

God bless us all and the week ahead, Fr. AP CJ

As with all things, our purchasing price for the votive church candles has been raised by the manufacturer. For many years, we have kept the price as low as possible with the bit of money made from sales going toward the purchase of more candles, wine and altar breads used in our daily worship........an interwoven connection. It is our desire to continue providing candles with as small an increase as possible; $5.00 per candle beginning September 1st. Let us continue to offer our sacrificial gifts and prayerful petitions to our Lord.

DID YOU KNOW?

Talk to your teens about dating

High school may be a time when teenagers begin to think about dating, making communication between teens and their parents even more important. Consider having an open, honest conversation with your teen about dating and appropriate relationships. Talk about what they want out of a relationship, and what their values are. Make sure they know how to communicate what they feel comfortable with, and what makes them uncomfortable. Talk with them about Catholic morals, and make sure they know you are always available. To request a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Talking with Your Teen about Dating Safety” email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.

¿SABIA USTED?

Hable con sus hijos/hijas adolescentes sobre novios/novias

La preparatoria puede ser un momento en que los adolescentes comienzan a pensar sobre novios, por lo que la comunicación entre los adolescentes y sus padres es aún más importante. Considere tener una conversación abierta y honesta con su adolescente sobre citas y relaciones apropiadas. Hable sobre lo que quieren de una relación, y que sus valores sean los suyos. Aségrese de que sepan cómo comunicar con lo que se sienten cómodos, y lo que los hace incómodos. Hable con ellos sobre la moral católica, y aségrese de que sepan que ustedes, sus padres, siempre estén disponibles. Para solicitar una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Talking with Your Teen about Dating Safety” (Hablando con su adolescente acerca de la seguridad del noviazgo) escriba a bmelendez@la-archdiocese.org o llame al (213) 637-7508.
