St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter Writes:
While Fr. Aidan is away, he has left us with reflections from Pope Francis:

FORGIVE ONE ANOTHER
This is important—to know how to forgive one another in families because we all make mistakes, all of us! Sometimes we do things which are not good and which harm others. It is important to have the courage to ask for forgiveness when we are at fault in the family……..We all make mistakes, and on occasion someone gets offended in the marriage, in the family, and sometimes, I say, plates are smashed, harsh words are spoken, but please listen to my advice: don’t ever let the sun set without reconciling. Peace is made each day in the family: “Please forgive me,” and then you start over.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING

With the upcoming holiday of Thanksgiving approaching, it seems an appropriate time to thank the St. Louis de Montfort family for the outstanding charitable donations made in recent months. Below you will find just a few of the appeals responded to in typical generous fashion:

Latest TIM: $130,102 pledged
$123,422 paid
$6,680 owing

CJ Mission: $34,270
Parish Festival:$44,300
Disaster Relief: $10,700
Following the resignation of Kelly McLoughlin to take a post with the Archdiocese, we are reframing the post of DRE as a Director of Faith & Family Formation. If you are interested in this fulltime salaried position, please pick up a Job Description and Application Form from the Rectory. Fr AP requests that you do not ask to see him privately about this post but follow the process so that there is a clear and level playing field for all candidates. Thankyou

Closing date for all applications is November 26th

SHARING OUR GIFTS
Autumn is the season for harvesting and sharing the fruits of our labors. This week’s scriptures use images of the harvest, family life, pregnancy, and investment to describe the abundant harvest in the reign of God. We discover that sharing the gifts we have been given brings eternal rewards for everyone.

In the Gospel parable a master entrusts his possessions to three servants before going on a journey. Each is given some talents. What they do with those talents determines what the master will do with them when he returns. How about us? What are we doing with our talents? How will our Master treat us when he returns?

THANKSGIVING BASKETS
Project Jo says THANK YOU!
And so does Sr. Catherine
At this time of year I have mixed feelings: Excitement about the project, and Sadness about the number of people who are in need.

This year the number has increased significantly.
And some of those are families with a single parent.
We are most grateful for the amazing response from so many of you with financial and food donations.
And time spent in preparing the boxes.
Next week we will give a more complete update.
DID YOU KNOW?

Online Grooming
Learning all we can about how predators groom children through online contact is key to keeping them safe at all times. Language is a predator’s tool for grooming online. One tactic that online predators use to groom a potential victim is by complimenting and reinforcing their self-image as a way of normalizing their interactions. Compliments are used to build trust, desensitize, and mentally or emotionally isolate the potential victim from others. It is important to remember that monitoring the online communication of young people on chats, apps, gaming websites, etc. is key in preventing abuse. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “The Language of Online Grooming,” visit: http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx or call (213) 637-7508.
