St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter Writes:
While Fr. Aidan is away, he has left us with reflections from Pope Francis:

VALUE THE FAMILY

The family stands at the center of society’s hopes and struggles. With renewed conviction, the Church continues to encourage the commitment of all, individuals and institutions, in order to support the family, which is the primary place where the human being is formed and grows and where upright values and examples are learned. The family needs stability and the recognition of its mutual bonds in order to carry out its irreplaceable task and to fulfill its mission. It needs to be appreciated, valued, and protected as it puts its energy at the service of society.

DATE FOR YOUR DIARY

PROJECT JO….2017
Miracles do happen! They have happened here at SLDM Church this week.
Kind and loving people of all ages have donated.
Energetic and tireless people have sorted and bagged and tagged boxes.
Last count it was 80 boxes waiting to be taken to their destinations.
And that means HAPPY THANKSGIVING for all the donors, for all the workers, for all the recipients.
AND PPAYERS AND ENDLESS THANKS FROM SR. JO AND SR. CATHERINE
And we know Sr. Regine was smiling from her heavenly home.

DID YOU KNOW?

Neglect is a common form of abuse.

Neglect is the most common form of child abuse. It is the failure to meet a child’s basic needs, including housing, food, clothing, education, safety, and access to health care. Neglect is most often characterized by acts of omission that aren’t easy to see. The signs of neglect are wide and varied, and may include: failure to develop and grow appropriately, or malnourishment, among infants; wearing inadequate clothing for the weather; and children who seem to be wholly responsible for the welfare of their siblings. If you know that any type of abuse is occurring, or if a child discloses to you, it is important to communicate these concerns to the appropriate authorities. Call your local law enforcement or child protective services department to report suspected abuse of any kind. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article “The Oft-Forgotten Type of Abuse: Neglect,” visit: http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx or call (213) 637-7508.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Looking for a wonderful, fulfilling holiday season? Give your time to help others who are less fortunate by volunteering at Catholic Charities! There are plenty of opportunities to serve—in our thrift store, food pantry, upcoming postal food drive and Posada celebration. If you are interested in volunteering, email or call David Coelho in the Santa Maria office: dcoelho@ccharities.org (805)922-2059

CHRIST, KING OF ALL

On this, the final Sunday of the liturgical year, we celebrate the solemnity of Christ the King. By concluding the year with this feast we are proclaiming our faith that Jesus Christ is the one and only king over all seasons, all peoples, and all of creation.

At the end of time as we know it, Christ’s work of restoring all things to unity and harmony with their Creator God will be completed. This Sunday, when we claim Christ as both our Shepherd and our King, we recognize our own calling to participate in Christ’s saving work by caring for those whom Jesus calls “the least ones” (Matthew 25:45).

FESTIVAL WRAP UP

The festival planning committee is very thankful for the perfect weather and excellent turn-out. Expenses have been reconciled and the festival earned the following for our parish ministries:

- Raffle Net—$23,608.38
- Festival Net -$20,735.11
- Total for festival - $44,343.49

We’d like to thank the chairpersons, sponsors, volunteers, all who donated and all who attended and enjoyed the festival. We are in need of additional co-chairs for next year. Please consider lending your talents to make the 54th Annual Festival just as successful. If interested, please call the rectory.

For a more detailed financial report, please visit the parish website.
