St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr Aidan Peter Writes:

August is that turn around month for families. The end of the summer vacation is approaching and kids go back to school. They find themselves in new classroom, with new teachers and have new hopes and dreams and fears and worries. In the middle of the month we are presented with a Holy Day of Obligation; the Feast of the Assumption of Mary, Our Blessed Mother, into heaven.
This feast celebrates that moment when the sinless Mary is received into heavenly glory as a foretaste of what awaits us. Mary, however, goes straight to God; we have to be purified enroute so that when we arrive in heaven we too will be spotless. This is purgatory. This Feast allows us time to reflect on the simplicity and virtue of our blessed Mother and her role in salvation history as the bearer of God’s son. We perhaps should look at those things which make us less pure and do something about them. The enticing thought of the totality of fulfillment; of joy, peace and glory with God in heaven that we celebrate in the Feast of the Assumption (so beautifully called by our Orthodox brothers and sisters, the “Dormition of Mary” – the going to sleep - ) should spur us on to try and purify our lives, intentions and relationships here and now.

God bless you and your families,
Fr. Aidan Peter

KEEP ‘EM SAFE

Watch for signs of anxiety in your child
Everyone has had an anxious moment or two in their lives, but many people — even kids — struggle with daily anxiety. Anxiety can be a contributing factor in depression, and even if it’s not that severe, it can make day-to-day activities tough. Kids who suffer from anxiety may exhibit physical symptoms like asthma and stomach aches, or could have trouble eating, sleeping, or going to the bathroom. If your child is showing signs of anxiety, it’s important to ask why, and then to help your child address the cause and manage the associated feelings. MANTENLOS A SALVO
Esté atento a los signos de ansiedad en su hijo
Todos han tenido un momento de ansiedad o dos en sus vidas, pero muchas personas, incluso niños, luchan con la ansiedad diaria. La ansiedad puede ser un factor que contribuye a la depresión, e incluso si no es tan grave, puede dificultar las actividades cotidianas. Los niños que sufren de ansiedad pueden presentar síntomas físicos como asma y dolores de estómago, o pueden tener problemas para comer, dormir o ir al baño. Si su hijo muestra signos de ansiedad, es importante preguntar por qué, y luego ayudar a su hijo a abordar la causa y manejar los sentimientos asociados. Para obtener una copia del artículo completo de VIRTUS©, “La edad de la ansiedad en los niños: implicaciones para proporcionar escuelas católicas seguras, parte II”, visite http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

STRENGTHENED BY THE BREAD OF LIFE
Today we resume the “Bread of Life” discourse from John’s Gospel that began two weeks ago. He makes reference to the Jews’ ancestors who ate manna in the desert. These days we would think primarily of Israel wandering in the desert, but faithful Jews would also have known the story of Elijah that we hear today. Strengthened by food and drink in the desert, the angel of the Lord sends him on his forty-day and forty-night journey (the biblical number for a preparation time). Like the food given to Elijah in the desert, Jesus tells his listeners that he is bread for the life of the world. It is very important that we not stop listening to Jesus after his promise of eternal life—a marvelous promise, but this “reward” is not the only reason we feast on the Bread of Life. We also come to the table to be made strong for the journey of mission, that the whole world might have life in the fullness of Christ. We are compelled, if we have eaten of the bread of life, to go forth in service to all.

ROSEMARY HILL PANTRY can always count on our generous parishioners to keep the shelves full. Thank you!!!
