St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, we celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Writes:

We have just had a lovely Mass at the school. Fr John and Grade 8 took the theme of Mary and the Rosary. The month of October is traditionally the month devoted to witness through the Rosary and its reflections on the life of Christ. When we celebrate the rosary I’ve always looked at it this way: We continue the mission given to St John by Jesus from the Cross to take Mary as our Mother and turn to her with our hopes and dreams or sorrows and concerns. There are now four different sets of mysteries that we can use. The traditional ones of the joyful, sorrowful and glorios mysteries were added to by Pope St John Paul II when he promulgated the Luminous mysteries. The first three, tradition says, were to mirror the 150 psalms; three sets of mysteries of five decades each of Hail Marys = 150. All the mysteries are about the biblical revelation of Jesus’s life and ministry from his birth through his suffering, passion and death, to the wonders of the resurrection, the gift of the Holy Spirit and the affection for his and our Blessed Mother. Mary was a witness to these things; we accompany her in the Rosary through this biblical journey in prayer. In doing so, we honor Christ’s command to John the beloved disciples to take Mary as our Mother into our homes; by doing this we also become beloved disciples.

I will be away from the parish from 4th November until 30th. I will be in England for some Josephite meetings, my 40th anniversary school reunion (LOL), some “Summer Holiday” with family, and then meetings in Belgium and Rome for the Josephites. Hopefully, while I am away, the first phase of the Church project will begin including: the new disabled persons ramp, the new statute, some new lighting, and the total resurfacing and refurbishment of the Gathering Area. It is our intention try and finish all the external works before Christmas and commence the internal works in the New Year, to be completed by Easter.

Year 2 Confirmation Retreat Recap

Last weekend 48 of our young people attended their year 2 confirmation retreat. The retreat, entitled To the Heart, was organized by our Youth Minister Luis Oros and his team of youth and young adult leaders. The focus of the retreat was to help our young people encounter the love of God the Father and to help prepare them for the confirmation next June. The weekend included talks, praise & worship, confession, adoration and mass. The retreat was a powerful weekend filled with God’s love and the Holy Spirit changed hearts and lives. Below are some quotes from teens who attended the retreat:

“An amazing faith experience. You could feel the power of the Holy Spirit.”

“Before the retreat, my faith life was at a low, but this experience has helped me gain confidence in our Lord’s love and mercy. It was an amazing weekend that I’ll never forget.”

“Before I would always saw God as an outside force. But now, I see God as a friend and someone to talk to when I’m alone.”

“I could tell the retreat helped a lot for me to be more open to the love of God. The retreat was marvelous.”

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Be a Trusted Resource if a Child Discloses Abuse

Parents are in a unique position to know about not only their own children, but their children’s friends. If you are a trusted parent, your child’s friend may come to you with secrets. What do you do if a child tells you about abuse? As an adult, it’s critical that you remain calm, and don’t overreact. Child victims are often frightened and confused, and your confusion and anger does not help their situation. Your concern and support, however, will affirm the child in important ways and can help begin the healing process for a child victim who has suffered at the hands of a predator. To learn more about steps to take if a child tells you about abuse, email jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

MANTENLOS A SALVO

Sea un recurso confiable si un niño revela abuso

Los padres de familia se encuentran en una posición única para conocer no sólo a sus propios hijos, sino también a los amigos de sus hijos. Si usted es un padre confiable, el amigo de su hijo puede acercarse a usted con secretos. ¿Qué hace usted si un niño le cuenta sobre un abuso? Como adulto, es fundamental que permanezca calmado y no reaccione de forma exagerada. Las víctimas infantiles a menudo están asustadas y confundidas, y su confusión y enojo no ayudan a la situación. Su preocupación y apoyo, sin embargo, reafirmarán al niño de maneras importantes y pueden ayudar a comenzar el proceso de sanación de un niño víctima que ha sufrido bajo las manos de un depredador. Para obtener más información sobre los pasos a seguir si un niño le cuenta sobre el abuso, envíe un correo electrónico a jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

COAT AND BLANKET DRIVE

Our Annual Coat and Blanket drive for the needy in our community will be held on Saturday and Sunday, November 3rd and 4th, in the parking lot of the church. We will be collecting new or very gently used adult and children’s coats, sweatshirts and hoodies. In addition to these items, blankets and sleeping bags would also be appreciated as well as NEW socks. Collection will take place before and after each of the Masses on that weekend. Thank you in advance for your donations!

THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble. The Lord’s kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people. Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God’s love and care for us. “Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves” (Psalm 126:5–6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God.

ROSEMARY HILL PANTRY can always count on our generous parishioners to keep the shelves full.
