St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Writes:

The liturgical assembly is thus a theological corporation and each of its members a theologian whose discourse in faith is carried on not by concepts and prepositions nearly so much as in the vastly complex vocabulary of experiences had, prayers said, sights seen, smells smelled, words said and heard and responded to, emotions controlled and released, sins committed and repented, children born and loved ones buried, and in many ways no one can count or always account for. Their critical and reflective discourse is not merely about faith. It is the very way faith works itself out in the intricacies of human life both individually and in common. Its vocabulary is not precise, concise, or scientific. It is symbolic, aesthetic, ascetical, and sapiciential. It is not just something she and her pastor think or say, but something they taste, the air they breathe.
It is a sinuous discourse by which they and those innumerable millions like them, dead and born and yet unborn, work out the primary body of perceived data concerning what it really means when God pours.....into the world as a member of our race. Nowhere else can that primary body of perceived data be read so well as in the living tradition of Christian worship.

KEEP 'EM SAFE
Scope out your surroundings while children play.

Parks are great places for children to play freely, test limits, and make new friends. But because they’re such popular play zones, they make them attractive spots for predators. Parents can take concrete steps to ensure their children’s safety when they go to local parks and playgrounds. Take note of the people around you — especially adults who are alone in the area, on the playground or in nearby cars. Notice the families nearby and keep track of who is playing with your child. Paying attention to your surroundings can help you more fully enjoy your time with your children, all while keeping them safe. VIRTUS TRAINING — 6:30-9:30pm

THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today’s Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn’t mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means giving one’s livelihood (or life). The scribes show us their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God’s care to those who are most in need.

MANTENÍOS A SALVO

Mientras juegan los niños, observe su entorno.

Los parques son excelentes lugares para que los niños jueguen libremente, prueben sus propios límites y hagan nuevos amigos. Pero debido a que son zonas de juego tan populares, eso los convierte en lugares atractivos para los depredadores. Los padres de familia pueden tomar medidas concretas para garantizar la seguridad de sus hijos cuando acuden a parques y áreas de juego locales.

Tome nota de las personas que rodean a los niños, especialmente los adultos que están solos en el área, en el patio de recreo o en automóviles cercanos. Observe a las familias cercanas y haga un seguimiento de quién está jugando con su hijo. Prestar atención a su entorno puede ayudar a que usted disfrute más plenamente de su tiempo con sus hijos, a la vez que los mantiene seguros.
