Special Intention

Fr. Aidan Writes:
Hello, it is good to be back...in oh so many ways! As you know, my visitation to the Josephite Missions in Cameroon involved a very distressful incident. Please continue to pray for the safety of our Josephite confreres who work there and for those people who were killed or maimed in the attack. The nine Josephites working there are brave and dedicated men. May God bring peace and stability to that region.

The rest of the visit was excellent. The new school at Koza has started well with a hundred teenagers aged 12. They have very smart bright green shirts and black trousers or skirts and black bow ties! They even practiced their English with me. The new mission at Ouzal is buzzing. Lots of activities: kindergarten, school, library, professional center for adults to learn trades and a four hectare farm which needs to be restored. Fr Paulin, the pastor, is also an agronomist so he is keen to get it going again as a source of auto-financement for our Cameroonian missions. Your kind donations for the appeal are definitely advancing the kingdom of God, not only there, but in Gabon and Congo too.

Bless you for your kindness.

As for me, well to paraphrase James Bond, I’ve been a little “Shaken but not deterred!”...and yes, I will have to visit there again in a couple of years. When you fall off a horse you have to get back up on it again. It is good to see your faces again and your kind wishes. It is also great to see our Patron, St Louis de Montfort, installed at the entrance to the church. May he watch over and protect us wherever we might be.

God bless you and your families, Fr A-P

BLESSED
When we think of the word “Beatitude” we think of today’s discourse from Luke’s Gospel, or the more familiar one from Matthew (which begins “Blessed are the poor in spirit . . .”). Actually, beatitudes occur throughout the prophets and Gospels. Today in Jeremiah (with an echo in the psalm) we hear, “Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord” (Jeremiah 17:7). Following his resurrection in John’s Gospel, Christ proclaims, “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” (John 20:29). The evangelists placed these sayings throughout the Gospels as short reminders about the characteristics that one will find in a follower of Christ, characteristics that will help spread the Good News in this life and lead to eternal blessings in the next. In Latin, the saints are called the Beati, the “Blessed,” for they are the ones who lived the “blessed” life as described by Jesus throughout the Gospels. How blest are we, when we also strive to make our own days a living beatitude!
KEEP 'EM SAFE
Tips for talking about “controlling access”
Part of the “Protecting God’s Children” training program is designed to control who has access to children and ensure that those who do undergo rigorous screening measures. It’s important for all adults to understand what this means and how this process works. Adults who are being screened have not been identified as potential predators. Rather, all employees and volunteers are screened carefully because such screenings constitute an important preventive protective step in establishing a safe environment in the parish. Screening gives confidence to parents, children, and those working with them that all are committed to the protection of children and youth in our Church. MANTENÍOS A SALVO
Consejos para hablar de “controlar el acceso”
Parte del programa de capacitación “Protegiendo a los niños de Dios” está diseñado para controlar quién tiene acceso a los niños y para garantizar que aquellos que lo hacen se sometan a rigurosas medidas de antecedentes. Es importante que todos los adultos comprendan qué significa esto y cómo funciona este proceso. Los adultos que están siendo evaluados no han sido identificados como depredadores potenciales. Al contrario, todos los empleados y voluntarios son examinados cuidadosamente porque estos exámenes constituyen un importante paso de protección preventiva para establecer un ambiente seguro en la parroquia. Estas evaluaciones dan confianza a los padres, a los niños, y a quienes trabajan con ellos, de que todos están comprometidos con la protección de los niños y jóvenes en nuestra Iglesia. If you have a heart for those in need and are looking for a way to serve the Lord, you are invited to assist in food distribution for the Rosemary Hill Food Pantry. Twice weekly distributions are planned for the near future with days and times to be determined. For further information, please contact Anne Sheaff (805) 934-3376 or Patty Zumbro (805) 937-4555.
