St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, we celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Writes:

Easter is late this year so this weekend is week 8 of Ordinary Time. This means next week is Ash Wednesday, the start of our Lenten preparation for the great Feast of the Resurrection.

Lent asks of us some soul searching (Prayer), some real attention to our behaviors (Fasting) and at the same time that we are looking inwards we are called to look outwards (Almsgiving). These three traditional exercises are nothing unusual but in Lent we give them an extra focus. You’ve heard me before refer to Lent as a season of spiritual spring cleaning; we dust, polish and buff up our lives so that we can more fully reflect unto others the light of Easter glory when it comes.

To aid this season there will be, as usual, an English speaking mission, a Spanish speaking mission and the two celebrations of reconciliation.

Lent is also a time when we accompany more closely the members of the RCIA program as they move towards either their baptism into the Church on Easter Saturday night or reception into the Church the following Sunday. Please pray for them earnestly as they journey closer to full communion with the Church … you and me!

God bless,
Fr Aidan Peter CJ

THE INSIDE SHOWS
In this third Sunday of our reading from the Sermon on the Plain, Jesus speaks of the inner soul and its outer expression. He uses images as he teaches. He addresses all of us. Jesus sees a plumb line connecting the soul with the soul’s expression-words and actions. He uses exaggeration to drive home his point. We are urged to clear out the debris that blinds us. He knows that we have an uncanny ability to be blind to our own weaknesses, though they be as big as a board. He knows, too, how willingly we seem to ferret out others’ smallest speck-like flaws.
And this, too, is for our general consumption; solid old goodness and solid old badness will show eventually. The old Latin saying, which echoes Jesus’ images, is true: “What is bred in the bone will out in the flesh.” By and by, the inside will show through.
KEEP 'EM SAFE
The “Battered Child Syndrome” may indicate abuse.
“Battered Child Syndrome” is a clinical term professionals use to refer to children experiencing recurrent physical abuse from a caretaker over an extended period of time. Signs of a battered child can include repeated bruising or bruising in unusual places, broken bones, scratches, and other injuries. Even if you do not see physical abuse happening, such injuries may be signs that a child is in danger in his or her own home. You should report any suspicious injuries or symptoms to a local child protective services agency — that report could save a child’s life. MANTENEMOS A SALVO
El “Síndrome del niño maltratado” es síntoma de abuso.
El “Síndrome del niño maltratado” es un término clínico que los profesionales usan para referirse a niños que experimentan abuso físico recurrente por parte de un cuidador, durante un período prolongado de tiempo. Los signos de un niño maltratado pueden incluir moretones esporádicos o moretones repetidos en lugares inusuales, huesos rotos, rasguños y otras lesiones. Aunque usted no vea el abuso físico, tales lesiones pueden ser signos de que un/a niño/a está en peligro en su propia casa. Usted debe reportar cualquier lesión o síntoma sospechoso a una agencia local de servicios de protección infantil, ya que ese informe podría salvar la vida de un/a niño/a. Para obtener más información sobre el artículo de VIRTUS® “Battered Child Syndrome” (Síndrome del niño maltratado), visite http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.
