St. Louis de Monfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ
through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

Today’s Gospel of the prodigal son starts off in a horrific way. The son saying to his Father, “Give me my inheritance now”, is not just a sensation selfis
but it also means, “You might as well be dead to me”, because we only receive an inheritance when someone dies. We all inherit things. I have my parent’s Crystal Wedding bowl, safely kept in my room at St George’s College in Weybridge, England.
If there were a fire it is one of three objects I would rush to rescue. It is laden with memories, love and hopes.
But what is our inheritance as Christians? It is the Kingdom that is offered to us. We celebrate with the Kingdom Feast of the Eucharist, “Do this in memory of me”. The Kingdom is described as that of light, happiness and peace; states of joy that come from knowing we are loved and to love others in return.
The Kingdom is somewhere we long be go to, we hope to be and is not something to be squandered.
So I pose this question, “Is our faith one of our prized possessions since it was gifted to us by God”? Or do we waste it and take it for granted? Which leads to another question, “If we do misuse this gift of faith, do we deserve the parallel gift of forgiveness that pulls us back into the Kingdom”? I leave you to ponder and reflect on these questions in hope-filled Lenten Joy!

God bless you and your families, Fr Aidan Peter CJ

GOD FORGIVES
The Lord said to Joshua, “Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you.” After forty years of wandering in the desert, this hard-headed people have finally reached the Promised Land. No more do they eat the manna in the desert, but they partake of the fruits of their new homeland. God has kept the promise to their parents in Egypt. Even though they were a sinful people, many times questioning God and even worshiping false gods, God has forgiven them and fulfilled the promise. The “take-away” for us is that there is no sin that is unforgivable. We may have offended our neighbors, given a bad example to someone, even worshiped the false gods of money and power. But God is a merciful God, true to the words spoken to us. God forgives all and calls us back to love.

ROSEMARY HILL PANTRY can always count on our generous parishioners to keep the shelves full. Thank you!!! Needed:

KEEP 'EM SAFE
Use creative problem solving to find new ways to protect children.

In the Protecting God's Children program, adults learn how to identify potential signs of abuse and how to pick up on red flag behaviors that indicate a potential predator, even before abuse happens. Another tool in the arsenal of child protection is creative problem solving, where adults learn to think outside the box when it comes to finding solutions for protecting children. One very effective creative problem-solving tool is to re-focus the group's thinking, turning it away from the perceived “problem” and productively more toward a collaborative solution. Consider the challenge of how to deal with registered sex offenders whose children attend the school or participate in religious education at the parish. Rather than discuss the topic, the leader might ask participants to finish the following sentences, “Wouldn’t it be awful if…” and “Wouldn’t it be wonderful if…” Once everyone has provided responses, the group can look through the answers to find connecting themes that may provide a previously untried solution. For more information from the VIRTUS® article “Creative Problem Solving — How Can it Help?” visit http://www.la-archdiocese.org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.
