St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:
I remember many years ago hearing the story of an Irish sister, Sr Philomena (this time!), who had come to America in the early 20th century and was ministering out in the Boondocks teaching Sunday school. Trinity Sunday was approaching and suddenly she realized that her usual visual aid, the Irish shamrock, was nowhere to be found. What to do? How could she talk about the mystery of the three persons in one God, of the Most Holy Trinity, to the children? Living in the countryside, Sr Philomena and her other sisters kept chickens and that evening they had boiled eggs and bread for supper. As if in a cartoon, a light went “ping” above her head; Sr Philomena knew what she could use…hard boiled eggs! They have the white, the yolk and the shell; the three parts making the one egg. So diligently, in preparation for the Feast, Sr Philomena hard-boiled and cooled down half a dozen eggs.

When she had gathered the children, she spoke beautifully about the wonder of God’s loving relationship as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. She took a knife and carefully removed the shell of the first egg and said, “this is like the Holy Spirit binding the whole together.” She then carefully cut the egg in two showing the yolk and white: the Father and Son. Ahh, the whole thing worked! So she had some of the older children cut up the other eggs. When the last egg was cut open, like all good plans of mice and men, something un-planned intervened….a double yoker! “Sister, who is this?” one of the kids asked. In a panic Sr Philomena improvised, “That is the Mother of God!”

This little story reminds us of two things we must recognize about the way we theologize, especially about mystery. All our ways of talking and thinking about things, especially the mystery of God, are limited. Secondly, be careful not to improvise into the netherworld of heretical conjecture!

But really, let us just bask today in the wonder and glory of the mystery of God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, whose mutual love for each other outpours as grace upon us and all of creation.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

May all Dads, and those who play that role, be blessed in this most profound call to raise children lovingly in the Faith and as good, well rounded persons and responsible citizens.

God bless,
Fr Aidan-Peter CJ
Hello from the Office of Faith and Family Formation. I am just getting my feet wet and re-acquainting myself to the office and all that goes with it. Along with Kayla Dubowsky, who thankfully is staying on for another year, we will be reorganizing and cleaning the office and storage closets as well as completing a small list of “to-do’s” to end the previous year before we tackle the next school year. With that being said, my first order of business is to see which volunteers are returning to teach and also contacting those parishioners who had expressed an interest through the Stewardship program. My door is open. Stop by and say hi. Drop me an email at christine@sldm.org. Looking forward to once again minister here at St Louis de Montfort. I’m glad to be home 😊. Christine Meugniot

VACATION BIBLE CAMP
It is with deep regret that Fr. Aidan Peter has to announce the cancellation of this year’s Bible Camp. This is the result of the change of leadership that is taking place in the Department of Faith and Family Formation. This has caused a hiatus in the planning and preparation of the event; we do not want to put on a poorly prepared program. Also, it is not possible to get every volunteer “Virtus trained” in time so that we are compliant with Safeguarding requirements. We must be absolutely clear about the safety of the children in our care. We promise that next year’s camp is now already being planned. A letter to all who applied for this year’s camp will be going out this coming week. Deposits will be returned.

RITE OF COMFIRMATION
“The reception of the sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. For "by the sacrament of Confirmation, [the baptized] are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit. Hence they are, as true witnesses of Christ, more strictly obliged to spread and defend the faith by word and deed.” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1285)

We are happy to announce that on June 15th, 2019, our Most Reverend Robert E Barron, bestowed the Sacrament of Confirmation upon 85 teen candidates and 45 adult candidates. On behalf of Fr Aidan Rossiter, and all of our associate pastors, and the Confirmation team, we want to extend our gratitude to all the parents of our confirmandi, for being the primary educators (CCC 2221), sponsors, and all the community of SLDM for your prayers and support. We ask you to continue to pray for our confirmandi as they grow in this journey of faith.

KEEP ‘EM SAFE

Cyberbullying could be affecting your child.

In the summer, children may be spending more time talking to friends online and sharing status updates on social media, playing games, and more. The internet is a great way to keep in touch with classmates while school is out, but it’s also a place where cruel and bullying behavior can be rampant. Talk to your children about internet safety, and be vigilant about who they communicate with and how they are acting. If your child seems sad or depressed, it could be a sign that bullying is going on. Unlike in school, you can’t walk away from cyberbullying, and harmful messages can be spread quickly. As parents, stay up to date on what sites your children are using, and openly monitor conversations and messages if needed. Learn more in the VIRTUS® article “Cyberbullying — What is it, What Harm Does it Do, and What can Adults do to Help, Part Two?” at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience the relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clear through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today’s readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

MANTEÑOS A SALVO

El ciberacoso podría estar afectando a su hijo/a

En el verano, es posible que los niños pasen más tiempo hablando en línea con amigos y compartiendo actualizaciones en las redes sociales, jugando y más. El Internet es una excelente manera de mantenerse en contacto con los compañeros de clase mientras están de vacaciones, pero también es un espacio donde el comportamiento cruel y de acoso, o “bullying”, puede ser desenfrenado. Hable con sus hijos sobre la seguridad en Internet, y esté atento/a para saber con quién se comunican y cómo están actuando. Si su hijo se ve triste o deprimido, podría ser una señal de que está siendo víctima de acoso. A diferencia de cuando sus hijos están en la escuela, ellos no pueden alejarse del acoso cibernético y los mensajes dañinos pueden propagarse rápidamente. Como padres de familia, manténganse al tanto de los sitios que usan sus hijos y si es necesario, monitoreen abiertamente las conversaciones y los mensajes. Puede obtener más información en el artículo de VIRTUS® “Cyberbullying — What is it, What Harm Does it Do, and What can Adults do to Help, Part Two?” (Ciberacoso: ¿qué es, qué daño hace y qué pueden hacer los adultos para ayudar, Parte Dos) en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.
