St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

This weekend, the Sunday closest to the Feast of Sts. Peter and Paul, we have a second collection for “Peter’s Pence”. Every cent of this traditional collection goes straight to our Holy Father, Pope Francis, for his charitable works.

In our Gospel passage today, Luke tells us “[Jesus] resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem”. Here we see that Jesus knew that his time was coming and that the Messiah was always to be manifest in Jerusalem. There was no escaping the journey nor the fate that awaited him.

His famous remarks about letting “the dead bury the dead” and “don’t take your hand off the plough” are said against the background of Jesus accepting his inexorable journey to his passion, death and rising in Jerusalem. The “Son of David” had to go to claim his Kingdom in the capital. The Apostles, of course, at this stage don’t understand this … but they will.

We also need to be focused on the journey of our faith; making sure things do not distract us and move us from the path to glory with God.

For those of you about to depart on family vacations, I hope you have a wonderful safe time together. I also hope you all had a wonderful 4th of July.

God bless you and your families,
Fr Aidan-Peter CJ
First Communion pictures and certificates are available for pick up in the Faith Formation Office.

GOD’S PROVIDENCE
Today’s readings celebrate God’s providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does. Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us “as a mother comforts her child.” The prophet describes us not as the usual “children of God,” but as “babies.” We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God’s care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.
Saint Paul’s trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can “make troubles” for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION
For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshiping together on Sundays. They responded, “Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live.” By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society’s life.
