St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

I hope that whatever liturgy we celebrate has a revolutionary sense and meaning, a revolutionary character in this world, so that our celebrations do not leave this world essentially untouched but cry out for God’s kingdom to come to this created world and for at last God’s justice to be done. So that no bruised reed is broken and no smoldering wick is crushed, and so that the coastlands, all the nations of the earth that wait for God’s law may see God’s rule at last.
Such must be our liturgy. Our liturgy must be a place where our longing can be appropriately expressed.
And all the while the sense of liturgy must also be the joy that God is in our lament, is with us in our lament, and even in our death and in the contingency of our life. This meal, we say of the eucharist, is the escastologi-cal banquet.

KEEP ‘EM SAFE

Drug use prevention starts at home
You know it’s important to keep your children, especially teenagers, away from drugs, but besides lecturing, how can you impress this importance on your children? Setting an example at home is a great start — watch how you communicate subtle messages about your own substance use, such as a glass of wine after a “hard day” or overdoing it on prescription medication. Additionally, talk to your children about drug-related rules in real contexts, like parties. Give them realistic scripts for saying no if friends offer them drugs, so they have real options when the time comes. For more prevention ideas, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Ten Prevention Practices You May Not Have Considered” at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

MANTENLOS A SALVO

La prevención del uso de drogas comienza en la casa Usted sabe que es importante mantener a sus hijos, especialmente a los adolescentes, alejados de las drogas, pero además de aleccionarlos, ¿cómo puede usted reforzar la importancia de ello en sus hijos? Dar el ejemplo en casa es un gran comienzo. Observe cómo comunica mensajes sutiles sobre su propio uso de sustancias, como una copa de vino después de un “día difícil” o sobrepasándose con los medicamentos recetados. Además, hable con sus hijos sobre las reglas relacionadas con las drogas en contextos reales, como las fiestas. Enséñele cómo decir “no” si los amigos les ofrecen drogas, para que tengan opciones reales si llegara el momento. Para obtener más ideas sobre prevención, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Diez prácticas de prevención que quizás no haya considerado” en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.
