St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ's call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

In the 1960s there was a very powerful film, “The Loneliness of the Long-Distance Runner”. This title sparked off many a book or article about the loneliness of this or that profession or activity. So let me tell you about the loneliness of the parish priest at the altar. In a nutshell it is felt when the dialogues of the Mass are poorly celebrated. What do I mean? Well, sometimes the priest will say “The Lord, be with you”, and the response is a barely audible mumble! This is rather disheartening for the priest…he needs to know that the congregation also wishes the Holy Spirit to be with Him…so that he can actually function as a priest filled with the spirit of God’s love, for he does nothing except by the power of the Holy Spirit. It can be lonely up there!

So where am I going with this?
Firstly, I have noticed quite a drop off in the engagement with the Mass, especially in the responses (Let alone the singing … ahem!). Please remember that the priest isn’t celebrating the liturgy on his own for you but collectively with you as the body of Christ assembled to give glory to God.

Secondly, the Mass, like all sacraments, is an action ("The") action of the Church gathered in the name of the Lord. All gathered have a duty as we are told in the document of the liturgy form of the Vatican Council to be fully, consciously and actively involved in the celebration; not just attending but being involved, being part of the ritual. The Mass is ours, not just something the priest does that we watch.

Thirdly, the end point would be that all our responses be said together with the clarity and fervor we express when we pray the Our Father.

Thank you for reading this little note of concern, but as Pastor it is my duty to ensure that we all enter into the worship of the Church as fully as possible…because the Lord deserves it, does he not?

God bless you and your families and the week ahead,
Fr A-P

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Don’t let a predator use fear to manipulate a child. Many victims of abuse don’t report the abuse right away, if ever. Predators groom their victims, and part of this process is designed to make the victim feel like they should trust their predator, even more so than their own parents. Many victims also have a fear that their parents or trusted adults won’t believe them, or that they will get in trouble for what happened — sometimes an abuser will threaten a child, using the child’s fear to buy the child’s silence. It’s important for parents to teach their children to talk with their parents about what is happening to them, what might be frightening them, and that they will be supported in disclosing. For more tips, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article “Don’t Let a Perpetrator Use Fear to Manipulate Your Child” at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

MANTENLOS A SALVO

No permita que un depredador use el miedo para manipular a un niño. Muchas víctimas de abuso no denuncian el abuso de inmediato, si es que alguna vez lo hacen. Los depredadores preparan a sus víctimas, y parte de este proceso está diseñado para que la víctima sienta que debe confiar en su depredador, incluso más que en sus propios padres. Muchas víctimas también temen que sus padres o adultos de confianza no les crean, o que se metan en problemas por lo que sucedió; a veces un abusador amenaza a un niño, utilizando el miedo del niño para comprar el silencio de éste. Es importante que los padres de familia enseñen a sus hijos a hablar con ellos sobre lo que les está sucediendo, lo que podría estar asustándolos y que recibirán apoyo al compartir esa experiencia. Para obtener más consejos, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Don’t Let a Perpetrator Use Fear to Manipulate Your Child” (No permita que un perpetrador use el miedo para manipular a su hijo) en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articulos.aspx.
