St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

SLDM School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

PARISH FESTIVAL: UNDER THE BIG TOP
WOW! WOW! WOW!

On behalf of the entire festival committee, Debbie and I want to say THANK YOU!!!! What an absolutely outstanding day we had at our 55th annual parish festival! The Lord provided us with perfect weather (ok maybe just a little warm). The food was delicious! Steppin' Out and our 15 contestants for the talent show as well as DJ Frankie G entertained the crowds. Bubble Fun and our dunk tank were enjoyed by children young and young at heart. Knights of Columbus, Boy Scouts, St Joseph students and hundreds of volunteers which includes all the food booths, raffle and day of tickets, quarter raffle and games, set up and clean up crews, gave of their time. There are too many involved to name individually without leaving someone out so we won't. Our final total will be coming soon. Once again, thank you, thank you, thank you. Debbie and I have been humbled and blessed by your work, your prayers, and your support!

In his Service,
Debbie and Christine

KEEP 'EM SAFE

Risky behavior that doesn’t rise to abuse
Sometimes adults will exhibit behavior that, although not at the level of sexual abuse, is risky or inappropriate towards children in their care. In these cases, it’s difficult, but important, to talk to the adult in question directly. Describe the behavior you witnessed, and why it made you feel uncomfortable. Be specific without generalizing or overdramatizing. Let the person know that you are concerned about how these actions could be seen by others, and what suspicions could arise. Stress the importance of role modeling for children in the person’s care. For more tips on talking about risky behavior, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article “What if the Risky Behavior Doesn’t Rise to the Level of Sex Abuse?” at http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protesting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

MANTENLOS A SALVO
Una conducta riesgosa que no llega a ser abuso
En ocasiones, los adultos mostrarán un comportamiento que, aunque no esté al mismo nivel de abuso sexual, es riesgoso o inapropiado mostrarlo con los niños bajo su cuidado. En estos casos, es difícil, pero importante, hablar directamente con el adulto en cuestión. Describa la conducta que usted ha visto, y porqué lo/la hizo sentir incomódo/a. Sea específico, sin generalizar o sin ser demasiado exagerado. Déjele saber a la persona que a usted le preocupan cómo esas acciones pueden ser vistas por los demás, y sobre las suspicacias que pudieran surgir. Recalque la importancia de ser modelos para los niños bajo el cuidado de la persona en cuestión. Para obtener más información sobre conductas riesgosas, busque una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “What if the Risky Behavior Doesn’t Rise to the Level of Sex Abuse?” (¿Qué ocurre si la conducta riesgosa no asciende al nivel de abuso sexual?) en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protesting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

DOUG AND NATHALIE HALVORSEN
COAT AND BLANKET DRIVE
Our Annual Coat and Blanket drive for the needy in our community will be held on Saturday and Sunday, October 26th and 27th, in the parking lot of the church. We will be collecting new or very gently used adult and children’s coats, sweatshirts and hoodies. In addition to these items, blankets and sleeping bags would also be appreciated, as well as NEW socks. Collection will take place before and after each of the Masses on that weekend. Your generous donations will then be delivered to the following agencies: Catholic Charities, Homeless Shelter, Salvation Army and the Rescue Mission.

The Bethlehem Christian Families (The Holy Land) October 5 & 6, 2019, are here to sell their hand carved religious articles made of olive wood. The sale of these precious articles supports their Church Mission which is to maintain the roots and the existence of the Christian Families who are struggling to remain in Bethlehem. At least Ninety percent of the funds raised through these sales go directly to Christians living in the Bethlehem area. The proceeds will create more work which will help them to survive and stay in the Holy Land since they have no other source of income and are dependent on the olive wood industry. Thank you for your support and generosity.”

ROSEMARY HILL PANTRY can always count on our generous parishioners to keep the shelves full. Thank you!!!

Needed:
Cereal  Jams/Jelly  Soup  Top Ramen
