St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement
We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.
Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

Fr. Aidan Peter Writes:

This weekend, Cardinal John Henry Newman, amongst several others, will be canonized a Saint by Pope Francis. St John Henry was originally a famous Victorian Englishman and Anglican Theologian, a brilliant scholar who converted to Catholicism. He worked hard to foster acceptance of Catholicism in a protestant country and was dedicated to helping the poor in the industrial city of Birmingham. He also was an original writer of poems, hymns and prayers. His great contribution to theology is to show how what we believe is always open to develop and grow because we are always exploring the mystery of God’s love for us in Jesus through the guidance of the Holy Spirit of life and history. Below is a famous prayer of his which seems in many ways very modern, many of its phrases could be/and are used by “New-Agers” and yet it is pure Catholic Faith.

The Mission of My Life

“God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good; I shall do His work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place, while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him, whatever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him, in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me. Still, He knows what He is about.”

St John Henry Cardinal Newman, pray for us.
God bless Fr Aidan-Peter CJ

SLDM School Student Non-Discrimination Policy

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

The school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

On Saturday & Sunday October 5 & 6, 2019 the Representative of the Christian Families of Bethlehem, the Holy Land, Mr. Raji A. Saada, brought the Bethlehem hand carved religious articles made of olive wood to your Church, Saint Louis de Montfort Catholic Church, which is their only source of income due to the political situation and lack of tourism. Once again, the people of your community were very generous.

We are very happy and grateful to Our Lord! Your purchases will allow the Christian Families to improve their lifestyles, promote their indigenous handicrafts, create work, and encourage them to stay in the Holy Land. Special thanks to you, Fr. Aidan, for making all this possible. We are very grateful. We hope you liked our “Appreciation Souvenir” from Bethlehem for all your kindness & help. Also, thanks to All Priests & Deacons, Patty and every one of your parishioners.

KEEP 'EM SAFE
The Archdiocese is participating in an Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests
The Archdiocese of Los Angeles, along with five other dioceses in California, is participating in an independent program to offer persons who were victims of abuse as minors by diocesan priests, access to compensation as well as access to counseling services if they chose. Those harmed many years ago and barred from filing lawsuits because of civil statutes of limitations will be eligible to make claims under the Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests. The Archdiocese’s participation in the program is part of a long-standing commitment to supporting and compensating victims of abuse, the protection of children and the vulnerable, and the prevention of abuse and misconduct in Catholic parishes, schools and ministries. Nationally recognized mediators and private compensation program administrators, Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros will administer the program. Funding for the program in our Archdiocese will come from self-insured reserves, monies set aside for this purpose. We pray that this new program might provide another avenue toward healing and hope. For information about the program please visit www.californiadiocesesicp.com.
