St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus. We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit. We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ. Having been called by Baptism into that Body, we celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration. We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do. We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

From a teaching given by Pope Francis in St. Peter’s Square:

THE WAITING PERIOD

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This Sunday’s Gospel passage is the first part of Jesus’ discourse on the end times. He delivers it in Jerusalem, close to the Temple, prompted by people discussing the Temple and its beauty. The Temple was very beautiful. Jesus says: “As for these things which you see, the days will come when there shall not be left here one stone upon another.” Of course they asked him: When will this happen? What will the signs be? But Jesus moves the focus from these secondary aspects to the truly important questions. Firstly, not to let oneself be fooled by false prophets nor to be paralyzed by fear. Secondly, to live this time of expectation as a time of witness and perseverance. We are in this time of waiting, in expectation of the coming of the Lord.

Jesus’ words are perennially relevant, even for us today living in the twenty-first century too. He repeats to us: “Take heed that you are not led astray, for many will come in my name.” This Christian virtue of understanding is a call to discern where the Lord is, and where the evil spirit is present. Today, too, in fact there are false “saviors” who attempt to replace Jesus: worldly leaders, religious gurus, even sorcerers, people who wish to attract hearts and minds to themselves, especially those of young people. Jesus warns us: “Do not follow them, do not follow them!”

The Lord also helps us not to be afraid in the face of war, revolution, natural disasters and epidemics. Jesus frees us from fatalism and false apocalyptic visions.

Jesus’ message causes us to reflect on our present time and gives us the strength to face it with courage and hope, with Mary who always accompanies us.

God bless, Fr Aidan Peter CJ

KEEP ‘EM SAFE

Traveling safely over the Thanksgiving holiday Thanksgiving is one of the busiest travel days of the year, with families gathering across country to celebrate together. If you are planning to drive with your children anywhere for Thanksgiving, keep these safety tips in mind. Review proper car seat rules and positioning, including forward or rear-facing weight and age requirements. Make sure your car seats are installed correctly; utilize free neighborhood checks in your area. Always model good behavior by wearing your seat belt, and make sure your children are wearing theirs. For more tips on child passenger safety, visit https://www.nsc.org/road-safety/safety-topics/child-passenger-safety.

MANTENÉNS A SALVO

Viajando seguros durante el feriado del Día de Acción de Gracias

El Día de Acción de Gracias es uno de los días cuando hay más viajeros en el año, cuando las familias se reúnen en todo el país para celebrar juntas. Si usted está planeando viajar con sus hijos a cualquier lugar durante el Día de Acción de Gracias, tenga en mente los siguientes consejos de seguridad. Revise las reglas apropiadas para el uso de sillas de niños para automóviles, incluyendo el peso que resisten, ya sea para los niños que van viendo hacia atrás como los que van viendo hacia adelante, y los requisitos de edad. Asegúrese de que las sillas para automóviles estén instaladas correctamente y utilice los puntos de revisión de las sillas si existen en su área. Siempre modele buena conducta usando los cinturones de seguridad, y asegúrese de que sus hijos también los usen. Para obtener más información sobre consejos de seguridad para pasajero infantiles, visite https://www.nsc.org/road-safety/safety-topics/child-passenger-safety.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We are faced with strong and disturbing readings today that hold a certain fascination, since they seem at first glance to be blueprints for future inevitable wars and hardship. A fundamentalist interpretation focuses on this aspect. Yet we hear them at our Sunday celebration of the Eucharist, which infuses them with hope and optimism. Rather than dreading the future, today’s liturgy assures us that God is with us in all of life’s inevitable trials, and that we have a role in shaping the outcome of human history. Occasionally, some Christians have attempted to decode these readings for an exact measure of the world’s end, but they have thus far been disappointed.

“Nothing lasts forever” is a lyric from a Broadway show. Stars fall from the sky, leaves wither and fall, mountains wash into the sea, human projects and governments totter and collapse with great regularity. Today’s liturgy opposes this idea as incomplete, reminding us that Christ has made a permanent change in human history, and that life in him is life forever. Rather than inviting us to throw in the towel, today’s liturgy strengthens us for acts of goodness and grace in our families, communities, and world.
