St. Louis de Montfort Mission Statement

We are called to be and to become a loving family centered in Jesus.
We acknowledge and accept that each of us is unique and has special gifts from the Holy Spirit.
We wish to nurture, develop and share these gifts within and for the Body of Christ.

Having been called by Baptism into that Body,
We celebrate our relationship in Word, Sacrament and Family Celebration.
We are then sent to call others to Christ through whom we are and what we do.
We recognize Christ’s call to be one in Him and commit ourselves to his way of life.

CHRIST THE KING

Fr. Aidan Writes:

As a Brit., I do not have the cultural formation in the history and development of the National Feast of Thanksgiving. However, for me as a Catholic Christian the idea of Thanksgiving is central to my life. All of our lives are in fact supposed to be Eucharist, in that they are to be offered up in thanksgiving for the merciful salvation of God given to us through the Cross and rising of Jesus. So for the Christian, every day is essentially a thanksgiving day.

This Sunday we give great praise and thanksgiving to Christ the Universal King and for all the blessings of the past Church year; next Sunday is Advent! But it is also with great joy that I give thanksgiving to the parish for its kind commemoration of my 60th birthday last weekend. So far, 60 does not seem too different from 59! I also give thanks for the now four years of being the pastor here at SLdM parish. It has been a wonderful experience so far. I have learned a great deal from you all, and I give thanks for that too.

So it only remains for me to wish you a very, “Happy Thanksgiving”. Since family is at the center of the national feast, may you and yours gather in joy and happiness and may any rifts be bridged. Looking into the feast and the idea of thanksgiving, I offer these two quotations I have found which give us a little food for thought:

“The unthankful heart... discovers no mercies; but let the thankful heart sweep through the day and, as the magnet finds the iron, so it will find, in every hour, some heavenly blessings!” ~ Henry Ward Beecher

“It is literally true, as the thankless say, that they have nothing to be thankful for. He who sits by the fire, thankless for the fire, is just as if he had no fire. Nothing is possessed, save in appreciation, of which thankfulness is the indispensable ingredient. But a thankful heart hath a continual feast.” ~ W.J. Cameron

God bless you and your family and the USA this Thanksgiving week,
Fr Aidan-Peter CJ and all the Josephite family.

Building active listening skills with children and adults can help you communicate more effectively with them, and it can also clue you in to any suspicious or potentially dangerous relationships in their lives. Active listening lets the speaker know that you have heard, understood, and valued what he or she said. Often, children don’t feel this way, but with a few easy tactics, you can change that, building a relationship of trust and respect. As an active listener, be sure to make eye contact while the child is speaking. Ask follow-up questions and check in to make sure you both understand what’s being said. Avoid “yes or no” questions and instead ask open-ended questions that will keep the conversation going. MANTENLOS A SALVO

Desarrollando habilidades para escuchar activamente a los niños

El desarrollar sus habilidades para escuchar activamente a los niños en su vida puede ayudarle a comunicarse con ellos con mayor efectividad, y ademáes puede ayudarle a descubrir cualquier relación sospechosa o potencialmente dañina en sus vidas. El escuchar activamente le deja saber al orador que usted le ha escuchado, entendido y que usted valora lo que él o ella le ha dicho. Con frecuencia, los niños no se sienten escuchados, pero con unas pocas tácticas fáciles usted puede cambiar eso, construyendo relaciones de confianza y de respeto. Como un escuchador activo, asegúrese de ver al niño a los ojos mientras él o ella estén hablando. Haga preguntas de seguimiento y en ocasiones repita para asegurarse que ambos entienden lo que se ha dicho. Evite hacer preguntas cuyas respuestas solo sean “sí o no” y en su lugar haga preguntas de las que se puedan obtener respuestas amplias para que siga la conversación. Para más consejos, obtenga una copia del artículo de VIRTUS® “Children are to be Seen and Heard” (A los niños se les debe ver y escuchar) en http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx.

THANKSGIVING 2019

Miracles do happen! They have happened right here at SLdM this past week. Kind and loving people have donated. Energetic and tireless people have sorted and bagged and tagged boxes. Over 50 boxes filled with Thanksgiving goodies were taken to their destinations. This means a very “HAPPY THANKSGIVING” for all the donors, for all the workers, for all the recipients. Prayers and endless thanksgiving for all who made this annual event possible. May God bless all!

OF KINGS AND KINGSHIP

Americans have an uncomfortable relationship with kings. The American Revolution was fought for independence from King George, after all. Nonetheless, today every Catholic church around the world celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today’s feast invites us to look beyond our national loyalties and rejoice in our primary identity. We are children of God in Jesus, Christ the King. Our readings help us consider what it’s like to belong to God’s kingdom. The book of Samuel captures the deep longing of the Israelites for a king to shepherd them. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians that we belong to the kingdom of Christ, whose power he praises in a beautiful hymn. Finally, Luke’s Gospel calls to mind the kind of king Jesus chooses to be—a suffering servant, a man for others. By sacrificing his life for us, Jesus throws open the gates of Paradise.
